

THE ROW

LUXURY MANAGEMENT

PREMIUM DESIGN MANAGEMENT

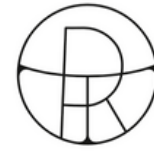

THE ROW

MINI MARKETING PLAN

The vision is to open a new service line as their first THE TEA ROOM inside THE ROW's New York flagship store. The objective of Service Development Strategy (Annex) is that visitors can immerse themselves in a total experience in contact with the aesthetic and style of the brand.

By analysing the statistics, June 2025 (Annex) is vital for launch of the new venture. To expand the horizons and embark on a new journey in the line of luxury.

THE ROW

The brand taps into the idea of wealth, who doesn't want loud logos or recognisable catwalk pieces but, rather, quiet luxury.

VISION

In this day and age, the brand visualise the exhaustion by fast fashion and Y2K trends, so the luxury fashion label initiated sustainable tailoring and timeless classics, as a step towards good investment in uncertain economic times.

VALUES

Impeccable detailing, quality and craftsmanship they have set the benchmark for quiet luxury dressing. They excel at intelligent dressing for all age groups.

FACTS & FIGURES

The Row is very "on trend" at this exact moment – according to Lyst, searches for the brand increased by 93 per cent for Q1 2024, meanwhile the Margaux tote was declared the hottest product of the quarter, with searches spiking 198 per cent year-on-year. \(Annex\)

CHAPTER 1

MARKETING ANALYSIS

Analysis of the Current Situation - March, 2024

1.1 BUSINESS TREND

The Row, is a luxury brand that has adopted various strategies to make itself known in the market. The strategies that have most characterised in the history of the brand were being considered a Quite Luxury Brand. Thus, making the customers feel desirable and and cautious at the same time, as they inculcate sustainable practices in their production.

1.2 MARKET ANALYSIS

Luxury label in the New York

1.2.1 MARKETS

M1: Women & Menswear

M2: Leather Goods - Bags, Footwear, Belts

M3: Accessories - Hats, Scarfs, Gloves, Socks

1.2.2 LEVEL OF COMPETITIVENESS (Annex)

The level of competitiveness obtained is 5.4, therefore the project has the adequate competition.

1.2.3 STATISTIC

https://issuu.com/studiogeorg/docs/the_row_stock_user_manual_-_simplified_copy

1.3 COMPETITIVE BRAND ANALYSIS

1.3.1 COMPETITORS

C1: Ralph's Coffee & Bar by Ralph Lauren - Ralph Lauren Corporation is an American publicly traded luxury fashion company that was founded in 1967 by American fashion designer Ralph Lauren. The brand has many sub-companies like Polo, Chaps, Ralphs Cafe and many more.

C2: Armani/Ristorante by Giorgio Armani - Giorgio Armani is an Italian luxury fashion house founded in Milan by Giorgio Armani which designs, manufactures, distributes and retails haute couture, ready-to-wear, leather goods, shoes, accessories, and home interiors. Armani has many ventures like Armani Emporio, Exchange, Jeans, Casa, Ristorante and many more.

C3: Blue Box Café by Tiffany & Co - Tiffany & Co. is an American luxury jewelry and specialty design house. Tiffany is known for its luxury goods, particularly its sterling silver and diamond jewellery alongside the iconic Blue Box Cafe (Academy nominated film Breakfast at Tiffany's was inspired by this cafe)

1.3.2 CSF ANALYSIS (CRITICAL SUCCESS FACTORS) (Annex)

C1: The first competitor is Ralph's Coffee & Bar by Ralph Lauren. So, after analysing the critical success factor, The Tea Room by The Row will have accountability in comparison to the former by 13.7%.

C3: Lastly, Blue Box Café by Tiffany & Co will still have the upper hand in the comparison because of it's lineage. As it pertains the legacy of being iconic, and forever will. So, The Tea Room is restrained by 10.4% in the critical success factor analysis.

1.4 MARKET SEGMENTATION (2.2) \(Annex\) \(Annex\)

S1: Locals - The New York locals, who are motivated to look good. So, Self-actualisation, (as it is the realisation of a person's full potential). And secondly, it provides the individuals a sense of affiliation and belonging to the elite class. Clients look for an exclusive respite with rejuvenating services and luxury experiences.

S2: Tourists - Analysing the other segment, tourists that rewards themselves while traveling and want new high badge value experiences. According to the demographic research “The Row” is quite popular in Singapore, Japan and United Kingdom. So, this venture would attract them to visit TEA ROOM and become potential clientage when traveling to the States.

1.4.1. SEGMENTATION BY NEEDS \(Annex\)

1.4.2. SEGMENTATION BY LOYALTY \(Annex\)

1.5 OFFER-MIX (2.3) \(Annex\)

The Row has a silent philosophy that, they use to position themselves as an elite brand. However, the coherence between the imagery of the brand, the prices and the products offered allow for the creation of a total experience for the buyer who wishes to come into contact with the brand, while still maintaining that distance which increases the perceived value of the brand.

1.5.1. OFFER-MIX BRAND MARKETING \(Annex\)

1.6 PROMOTION-MIX (2.4) (3.1) (Annex)

The brand mainly uses actors, VIPs and influencers to promote their clothing, exploiting the curiosity of users who will search for the brand through social channels to come into contact with the lifestyle that The Row offers.

1.7 STRENGTHS & WEAKNESS (2.5) (Annex)

S1: Aesthetic Minimal Wearable - The strength of the brand lies precisely in its aspiration to be a minimal and luxurious brand, easily wearable in any situation without ever losing its refinement.

S2: Brand Collection - The scarcity of products that allow non-regular buyers to start contact with brand.

W1: Limited Product Category - Some weaknesses of the brand can be identified in the limited selection of product categories.

W2: Almost Absent Advertising Campaign - Unlike other brands, that focuses only on indirect sponsorships which are then noticed and publicised by the media.

1.8 POSITIONING (2.6) (Annex)

The Row manages to launch itself on the market as a product with a strong visual identity and great attractiveness from buyers. However, having been born recently, the brand still needs time to guarantee real historicity to the iconic products that are currently on the market.

CHAPTER 2

M A R K E T I N G S T R A T E G Y

Marketing Strategy & Objectives - June, 2025

Introducing new exclusive service line of The Tea Room in New York, at their flagship.
Opulenting customised experience and expanding brand horizon.

2.1 MARKETING STRATEGY FOR NEXT YEAR

By June 2025, a new area called "Tea Room" will be established in the New York flagship store where you can consume food and drinks sold directly by the brand. This move is part of a Service Development Strategy that allows visitors to immerse themselves in a total experience in contact with the ideas and style of the brand.

2.2 TARGETING BY NEEDS (1.4)

The reference target for this new initiative will remain consistent with that of the brand, so a mainly female target who wants to stand out from the crowd in an elegant way through an aristocratic lifestyle and a refined and not excessive style.

T1: Customers looking for a aesthetic niche cafe or tea rooms out of the ordinary, with unique ambience.

T2: Customers looking for a very high and varied level of services and exclusive experiences.

2.3 REVISING NEXT YEAR OFFER (1.5) (3.2) (Annex)

Revising the brand positions in the new tenure, The Row will pivot it's focus solely from the brand to more focus on service and experiences. As this will allow them to reinvent a new potential of growth, therefore expanding brand positioning.

2.3.1 OFFER-MIX COMPARISON (Annex)

2.4 OPTIMISING MARKETING PROMOTION NEXT YEAR (1.6) (3.3) (Annex).

The brand mainly focuses on PR and Sales & Promotions. But for the forthcoming annual, brand should focus on:

M1: Direct Marketing will be the main focus of the brand for the upcoming year, in this arena the Tea Room will help the brand to give their loyal and potential customers in-person on one-on-one communication to build and maintain brand awareness.

M2: Sponsorships for events like Charitable Auctions like for paintings or ceramics Sports Tournaments like Polo, Tennis, Golf. As now most luxury labels are entering the world of sports sponsorship, which offers exposure to a wide international audience.

2.5 TRANSFORMING STRENGTHS AND WEAKNESS INTO OPPORTUNITIES (1.7) (Annex).

2.5.1 WEAKNESS INTO OPPORTUNITY:

O1: Limited selection of product categories -As they use the tactics of creating scarcity in order to increase demand in market.

O2: Almost absent advertising campaign -Although being invisible is a high risk, but The Row have optimised this weakness into strength by focusing only on indirect sponsorships which are then noticed and publicised by the media.

2.5.2 STRENGTH INTO THREATS:

T1: Minimal label less wearables - Since brand is quite new they have no icon, that makes them outstand International market.

T2: Brand Collection - The scarcity of products that allow non-regular buyers to start contact with brand is also a possible threat, due to the unavailability of large product categories.

2.6 RE-POSITIONING (1.8) (Annex)

Considering the stylistic recognisability and minimal outlook of the positioning criteria for the brand. However, the brand still needs time to guarantee real historicity to the iconic products that are currently on the market, like recognisable style, presence of iconic pieces, and drawings of elements that attributable to the brand are still missing.

2.7 CONDUCTING YEALY SALES FORECAST

2.7.1 SEASONALITY: (Annex)

By scrutinising the trend and market flow, THE TEA ROOM by THE ROW will be launched in June 2024, so brand has plethora of time to examine, refine and make amendments in their services. Moreover, the company can predict the sales, beforehand.

2.7.2 FACTS & ASSUMPTIONS: (Annex)

Approximately, 28 seats in total, with 1 hour of seating duration and open 6 days a week, 48 weeks per year with assumption average spend of 30 dollars, each VAT is 8.875%. So, approximately a million dollars will be added to the revenue per annum.

2.7.3: CALCULATIONS:

Yearly Sales Forecast - Transactions X Average spent X Days X Weeks : $136 * $30 * 6 * 48 = $1,175,040$

Optimistic and Pessimistic (10% rule) - $1,175,040 * 1.10 = $1,065,218$

VAT (8.875%) - $1,065,218 * 1.08875 = $978,386$

So the expected 12-month forecast will be $978,386.

CHAPTER 3

M A R K E T
A C T I O N P L A N

Marketing Action Plan & Budget - June, 2025

3.1 TO MAINTAIN SUCCESSFUL ONLINE/OFFLINE ACTIVITIES (1.6)

Collaborating with an international premium fashion brand like H&M, uses strategies based on its success. Moreover, H&M has been pioneer in luxury collaborations, brands like Balmain, Moschino, Versace, Alexander Wang and many more have already collaborated with the brand. A possible collaboration between the two brands could create a perfect synergy with the two brands complementing each other, thus creating a new successful strategy.

3.2. TO ADJUST THE OFFER (2.3) (1.5) (Annex)

The Row already invests a lot in the figure of the Brand, to make the definitive leap in quality it could introduce a new symbol to be connected to the logo that could aesthetically recall the brand without needing to name it, furthermore practices linked to sustainability or art could attract the attention of new buyers.

The experience for the buyer could be improved by creating personalisation services, promoting private events for buyers most attached to the brand and offering an additional service within the stores to create a more engaging experience. Increasing the perceived experience could significantly increase the desirability of the brand.

The service must be improved by combining it with the experience by offering, like champagne and small finger foods to buyers, creating a database to know the customer's tastes in advance and allowing, speaking of the price, the possibility of allowing payment with international credit cards, thus improving service and customer experience that will increase brand perception.

3.3 TO CONSOLIDATE ONLINE/OFFLINE MARKETING ACTIVITIES (2.4) (Annex)

3.3.1. DIRECT MARKETING:

The experience for the buyer could be improved by creating personalisation experience. So the focus of the marketing activities for this strategy would include direct marketing strategies such as mailing customised invitations to loyal customers highlighting the new product line and add on services.

3.3.2. SPONSORSHIPS:

The marketing strategy includes sponsoring private event like the Kentucky Derby, that is conducted every year since 1874 at the Churchill Downs, the world's most legendary racetrack, has conducted thoroughbred racing. The Tea Room service can also be extend as a segment for this event. This way brand will be able to keep the integrity of idea and yet outreach new audiences.

3.4. TO SET A PERIODICAL MARKETING BUDGET

Company’s total revenue = ~$147 Million

Allocated budget for marketing the new service = $13 Million

Revenue		Cash Flow
Sales	$113 M 76.8%	Direct Marketing	$6.5 M 50%
Collaborations (Co-Budgeting)	$32 M 21.9%	Sponsorship	$2.6 M 20%
Funding	$2 M 1.3%	Offers	$1.3 M 10%
		Market Research	$0.65 M 5%
		Requirement	$1.95 M 15%
TOTAL	$147 M 100%	TOTAL	$13 M 100%

A N N E X

ABOUT

The Row was established in 2006. Named in reverence of London’s Savile Row, the fashion house emulates the bespoke standards of exquisite fabrics, impeccable details, and perfect fits. Focusing on exceptional textures and precise tailoring, the house combines a timeless perspective with subtle attitudes which form an irreverent classic signature. The Row’s collections explore the strength of simplistic shapes that speak to discretion and are based on of uncompromising quality.

DETAILS

Founders: Mary-Kate Olsen & Ashley Olsen

Industry: Luxury Apparel & Fashion

Company size: 51-200 employees

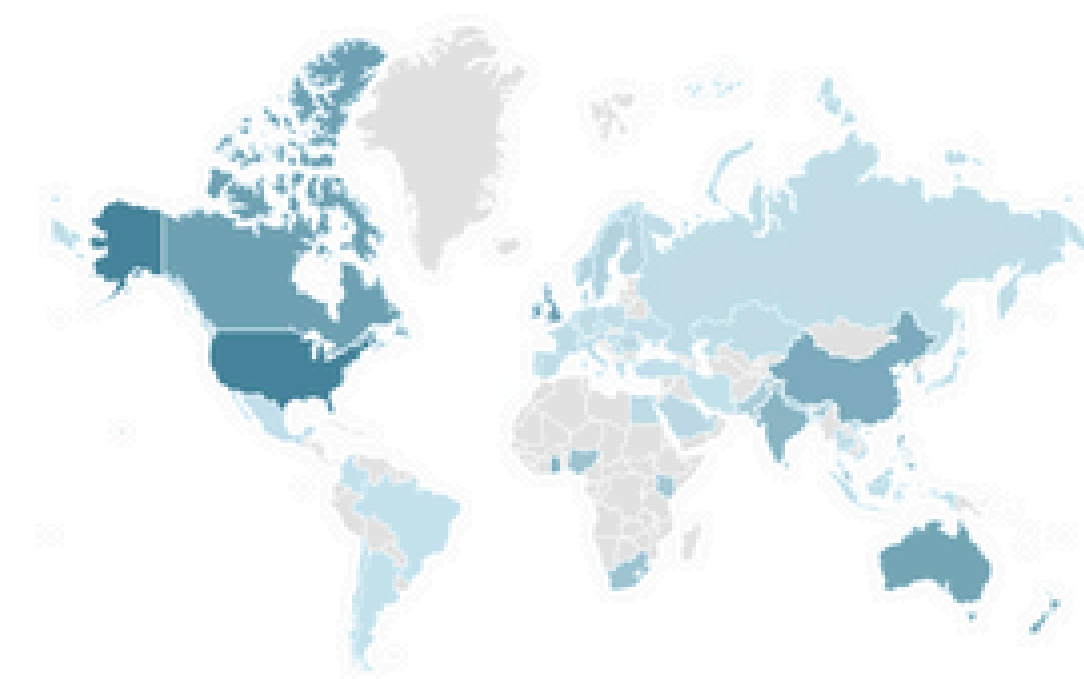

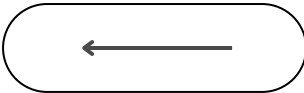

- The Row grew their employee count by 12% last year.

Headquarters: New York, NY

Countries United States, Canada, Singapore, United Kingdom, China, Australia

REVENUES

- The Row's estimated annual revenue is currently $66.2M per year.
- The Row's estimated revenue per employee is $250,800

ANNEX: SEASONALITY

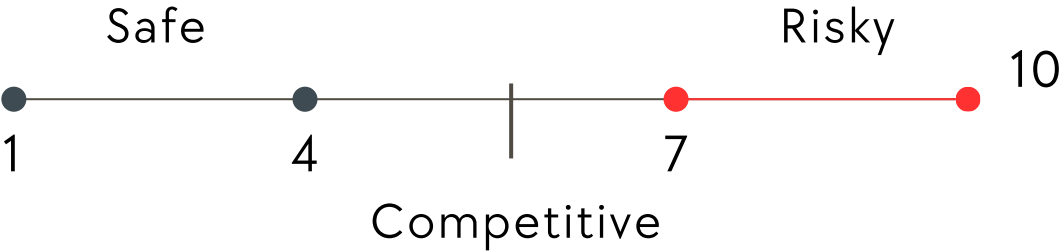

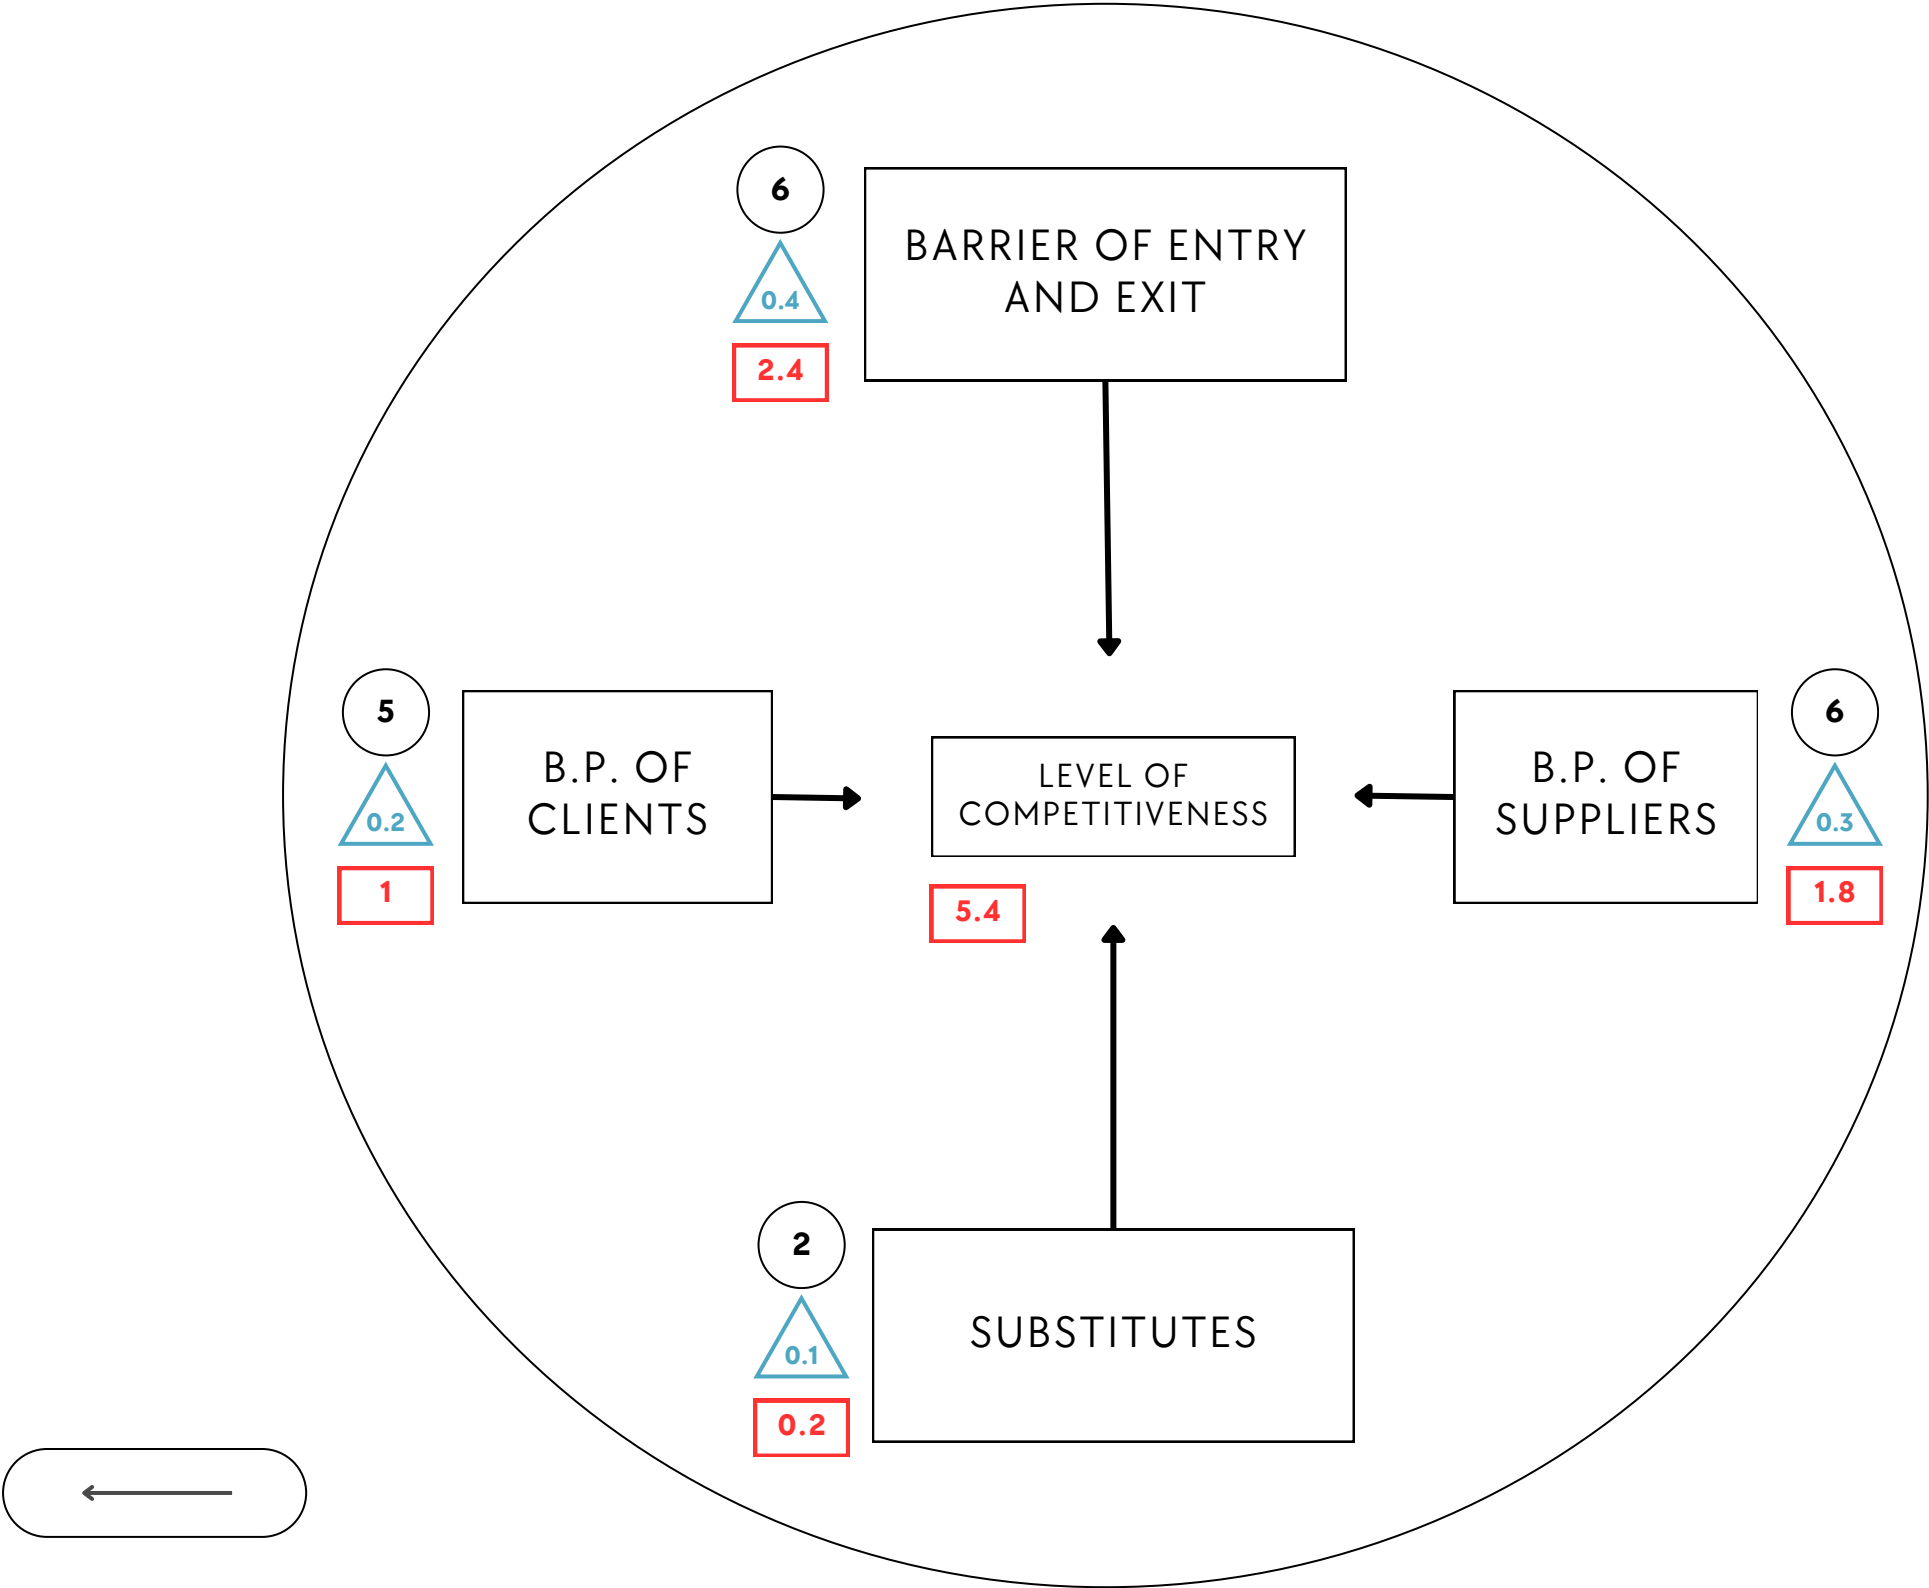

ANNEX: ANSOF MATRIX

	EXISTING	NEW
EXISTING	DIRECT MARKETING Womenswear Menswear Leather Goods Accessories 25%	SERVICE DEVELOPMENT STRATEGY The Tea Room 40%
NEW	MARKET DEVELOPING STRATEGY Creating new clothes line Expand the menswear 30%	DIVERSIFIED STRATEGY Establishing new hotels concept 5%

ANNEX 1.2.2 LEVEL OF COMPETITIVENESS GO - NO GO

Reference: Porter framework, 1980
In this case, the score obtained is 5.4, indicating that the competitive risk is adequate and not too high.

ANNEX 1.3.2 CRITICAL SUCCESS FACTORS

C1: Ralph’s Coffee by Ralph Lauren, New York, USA

C2: Armani/Ristorante by Giorgio Armani, New York, USA

C3: Blue Box Café by Tiffany & Co, New York, USA.

CSF	Weight	Ralph’s Coffee Ralph Lauren		Armani/Ristorante Giorgio Armani		The Tea Room The Row
Lineage (Classic)	0.2	7	1.4	6	1.2	3	0.6
Exclusivity	0.5	4	2.0	3	1.5	7	3.5
Newness (Contemporary)	0.3	6	1.8	7	2.1	9	2.7
Total	1.0		5.2		4.8		6.8

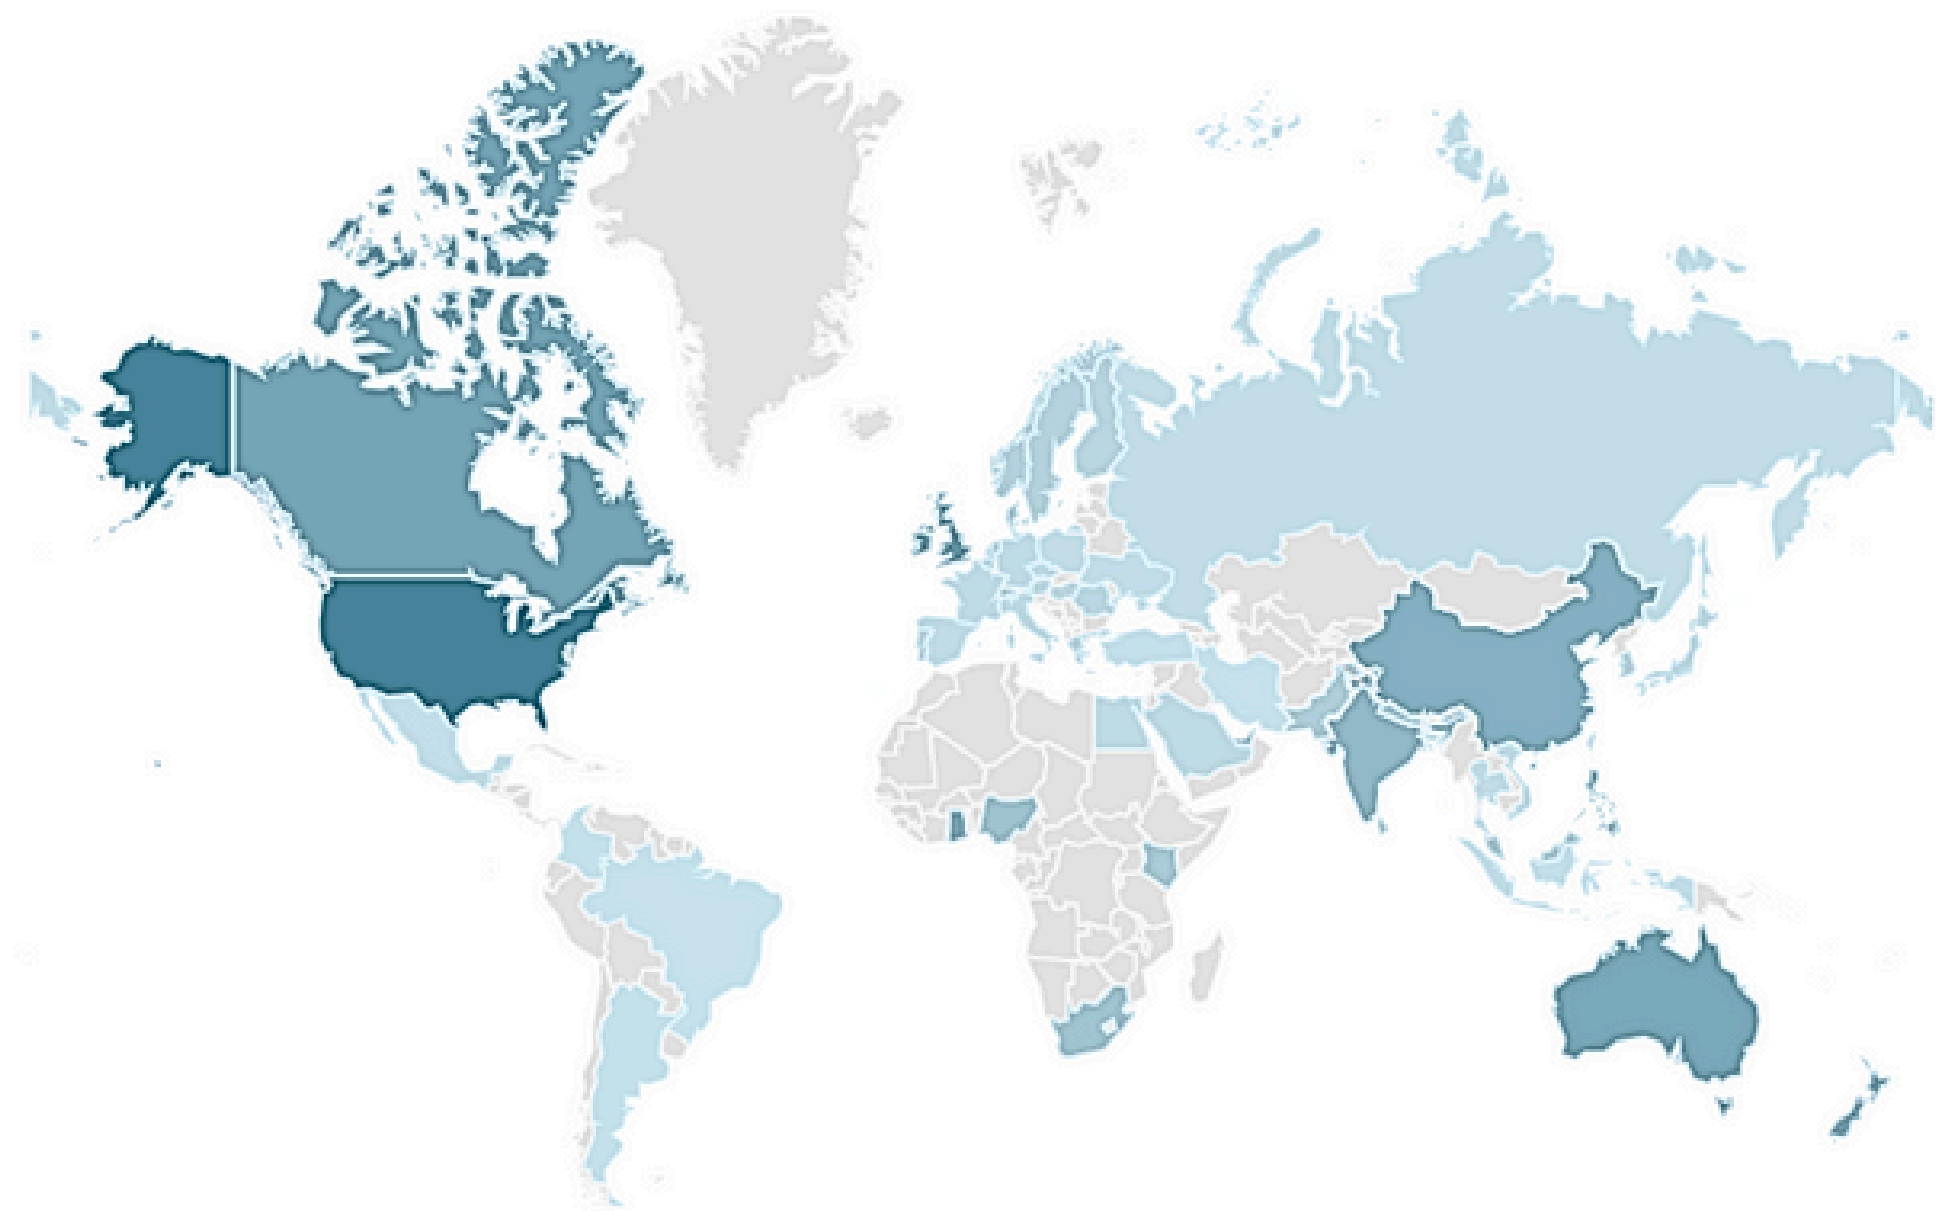

+13.7

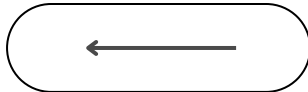

CSF	Weight	Blue Box Café Tiffany & Co		The Tea Room The Row
Lineage (History)	0.2	9	1.8	3	0.6
Exclusivity	0.5	7	3.5	7	3.5
Newness (contemporary)	0.3	6	1.8	9	2.7
Total	1.0		7.1		6.8

-10.4

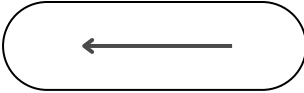

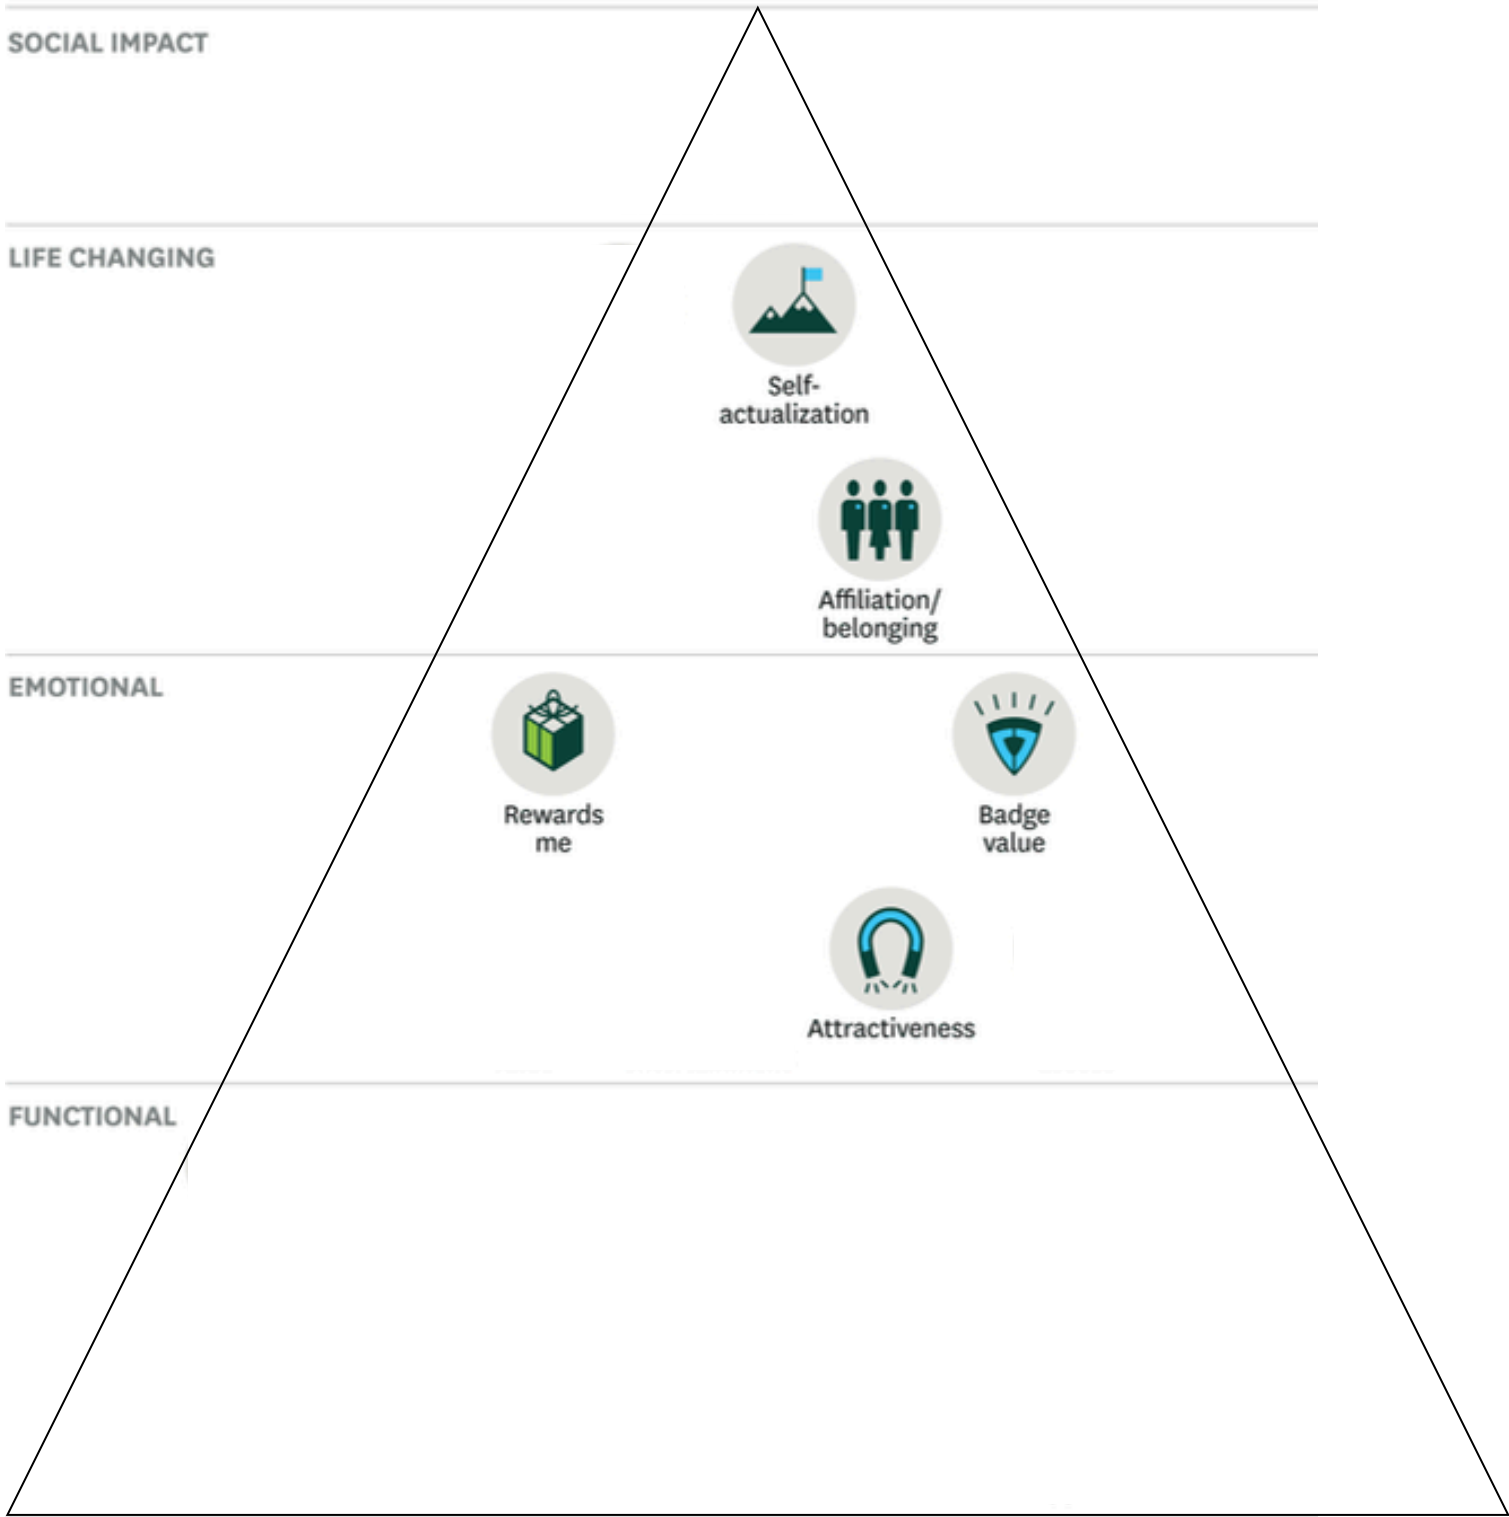

ANNEX 1.4 MARKET SEGMENTATION

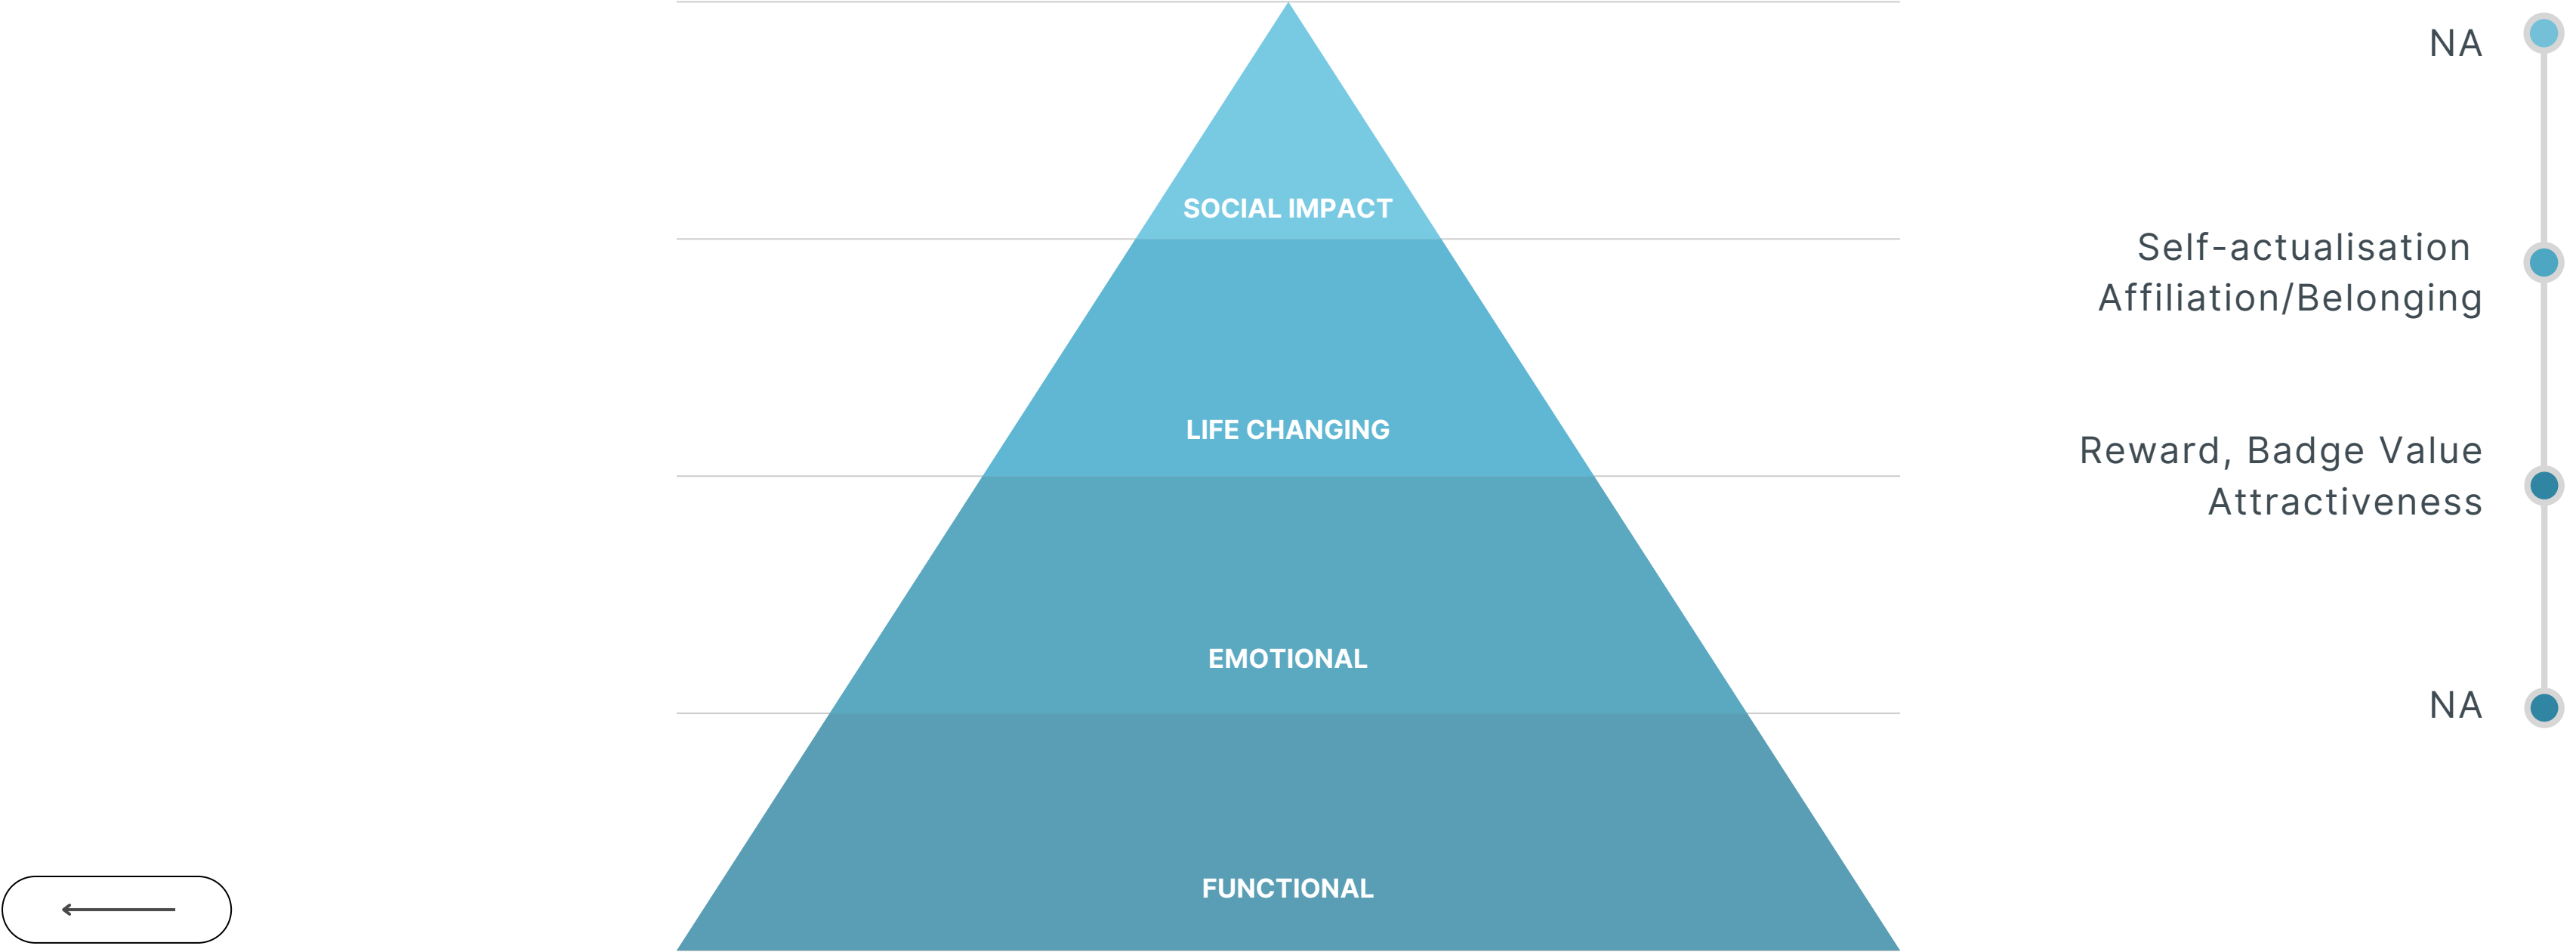

Brand is quite popular in localities of United States followed by tourists from Singapore, United Kingdom, Ireland, Australia, China and India.

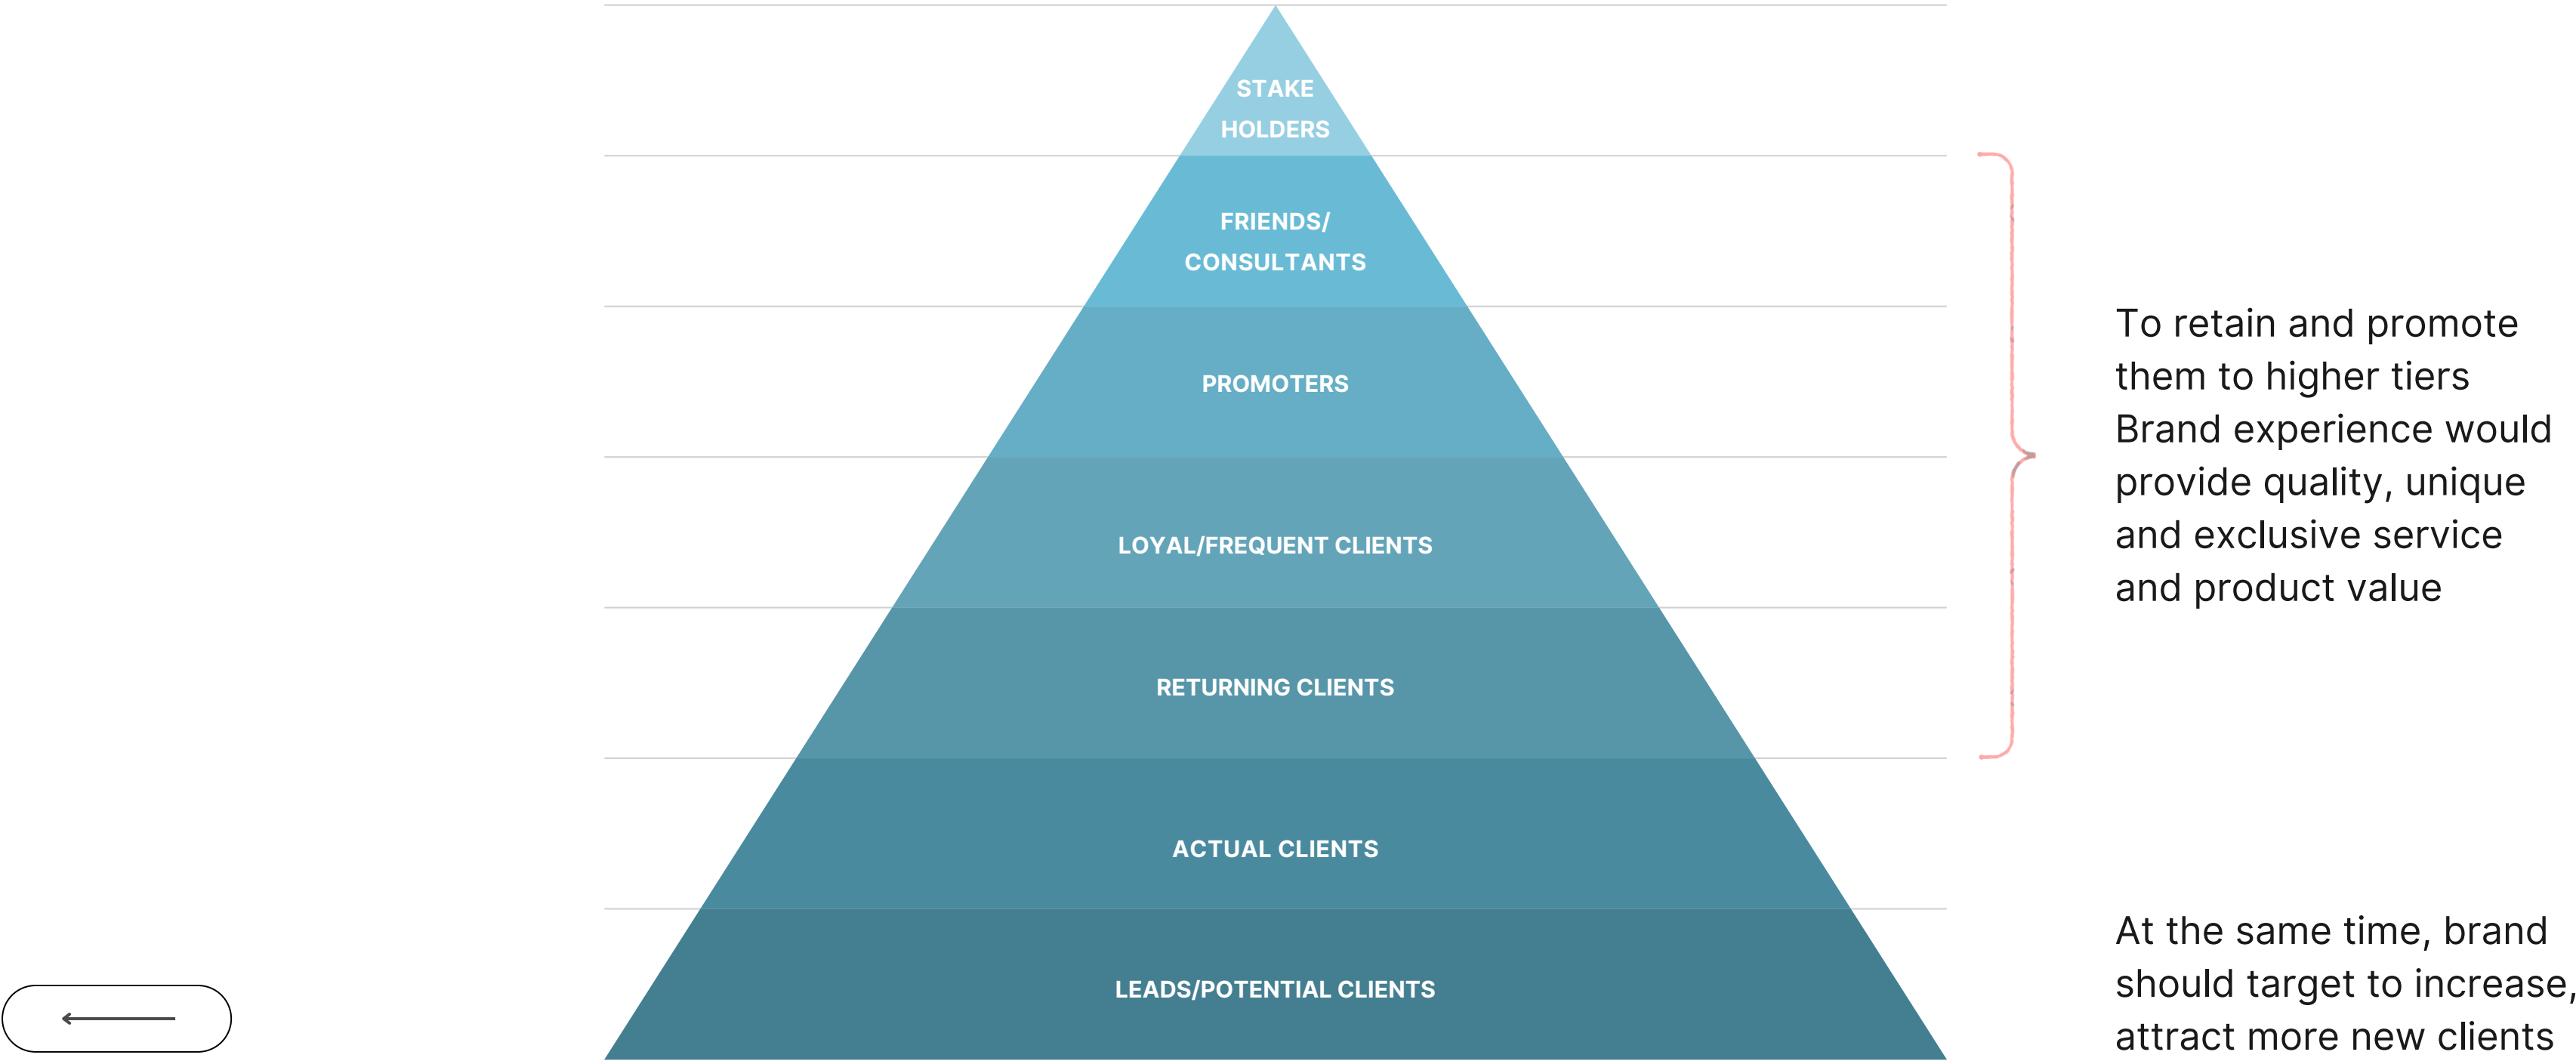

ANNEX 1.4 SEGMENTATION: BAIN & CO. VALUES

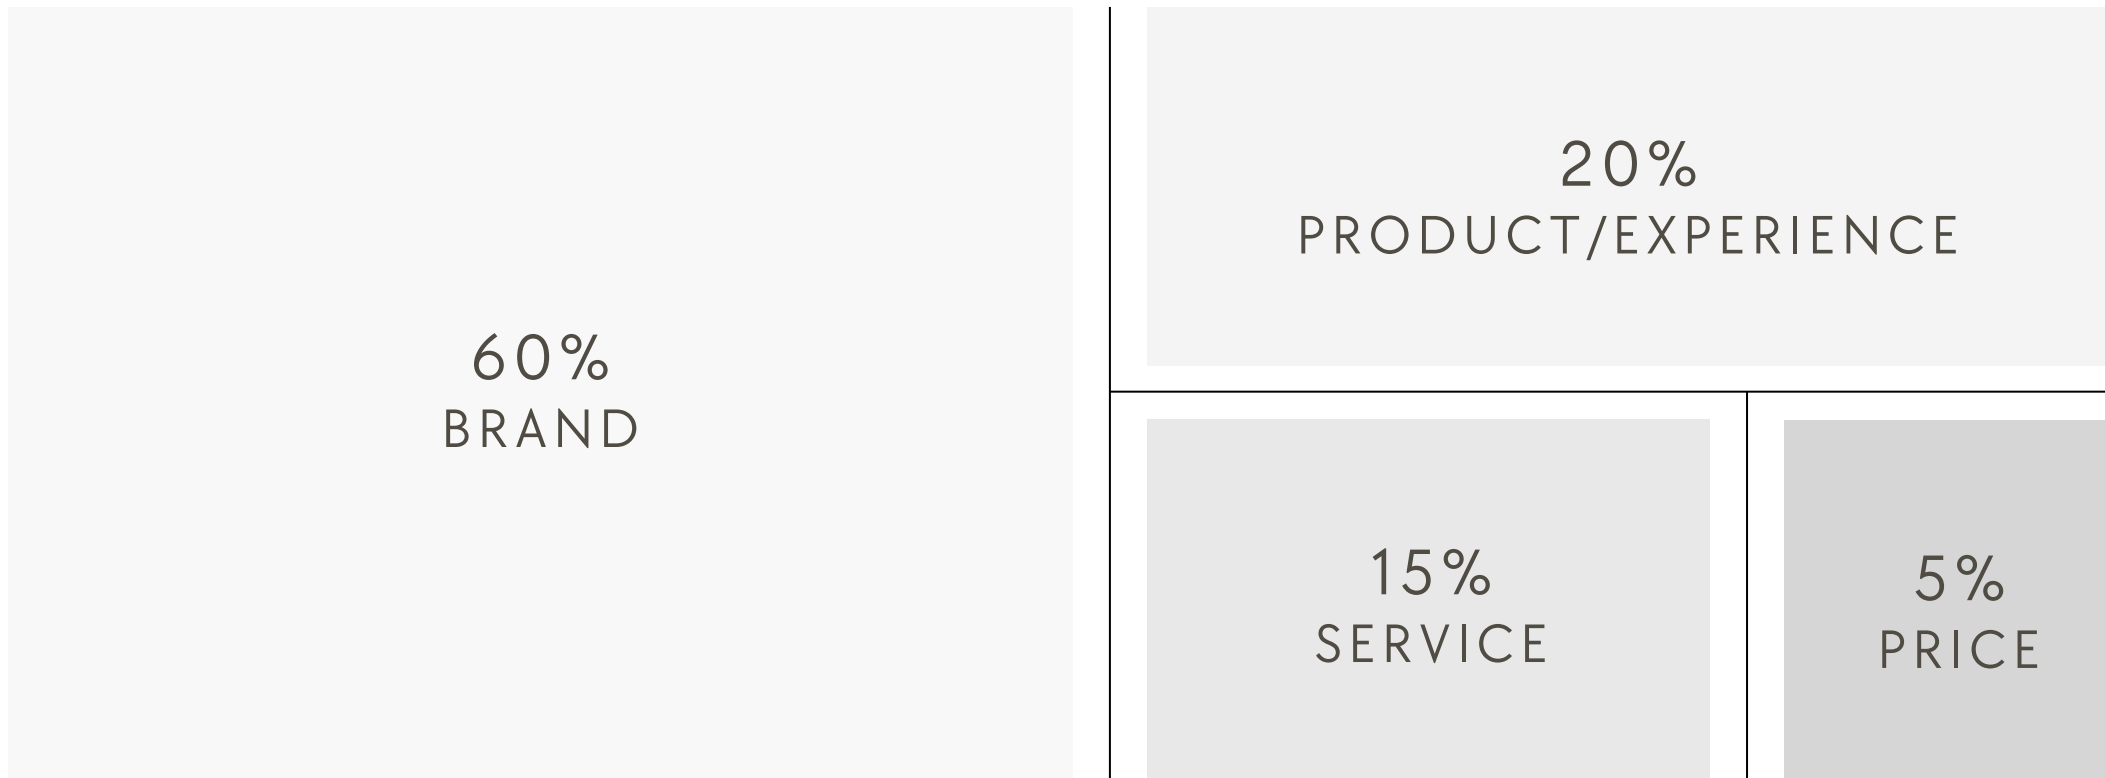

ANNEX 1.4.1. SEGMENTATION BY NEEDS

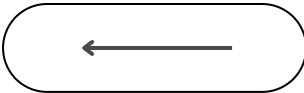

ANNEX 1.4.2. SEGMENTATION BY LOYALTY

ANNEX 1.5 OFFER-MIX

The brand focuses on showcasing the brand image that they portray followed by product experience that reflects on the quality of service and pricing.

ANNEX 1.5.1 OFFER-MIX - BRAND MARKETING

PRODUCTS

Division of product categories

STYLE

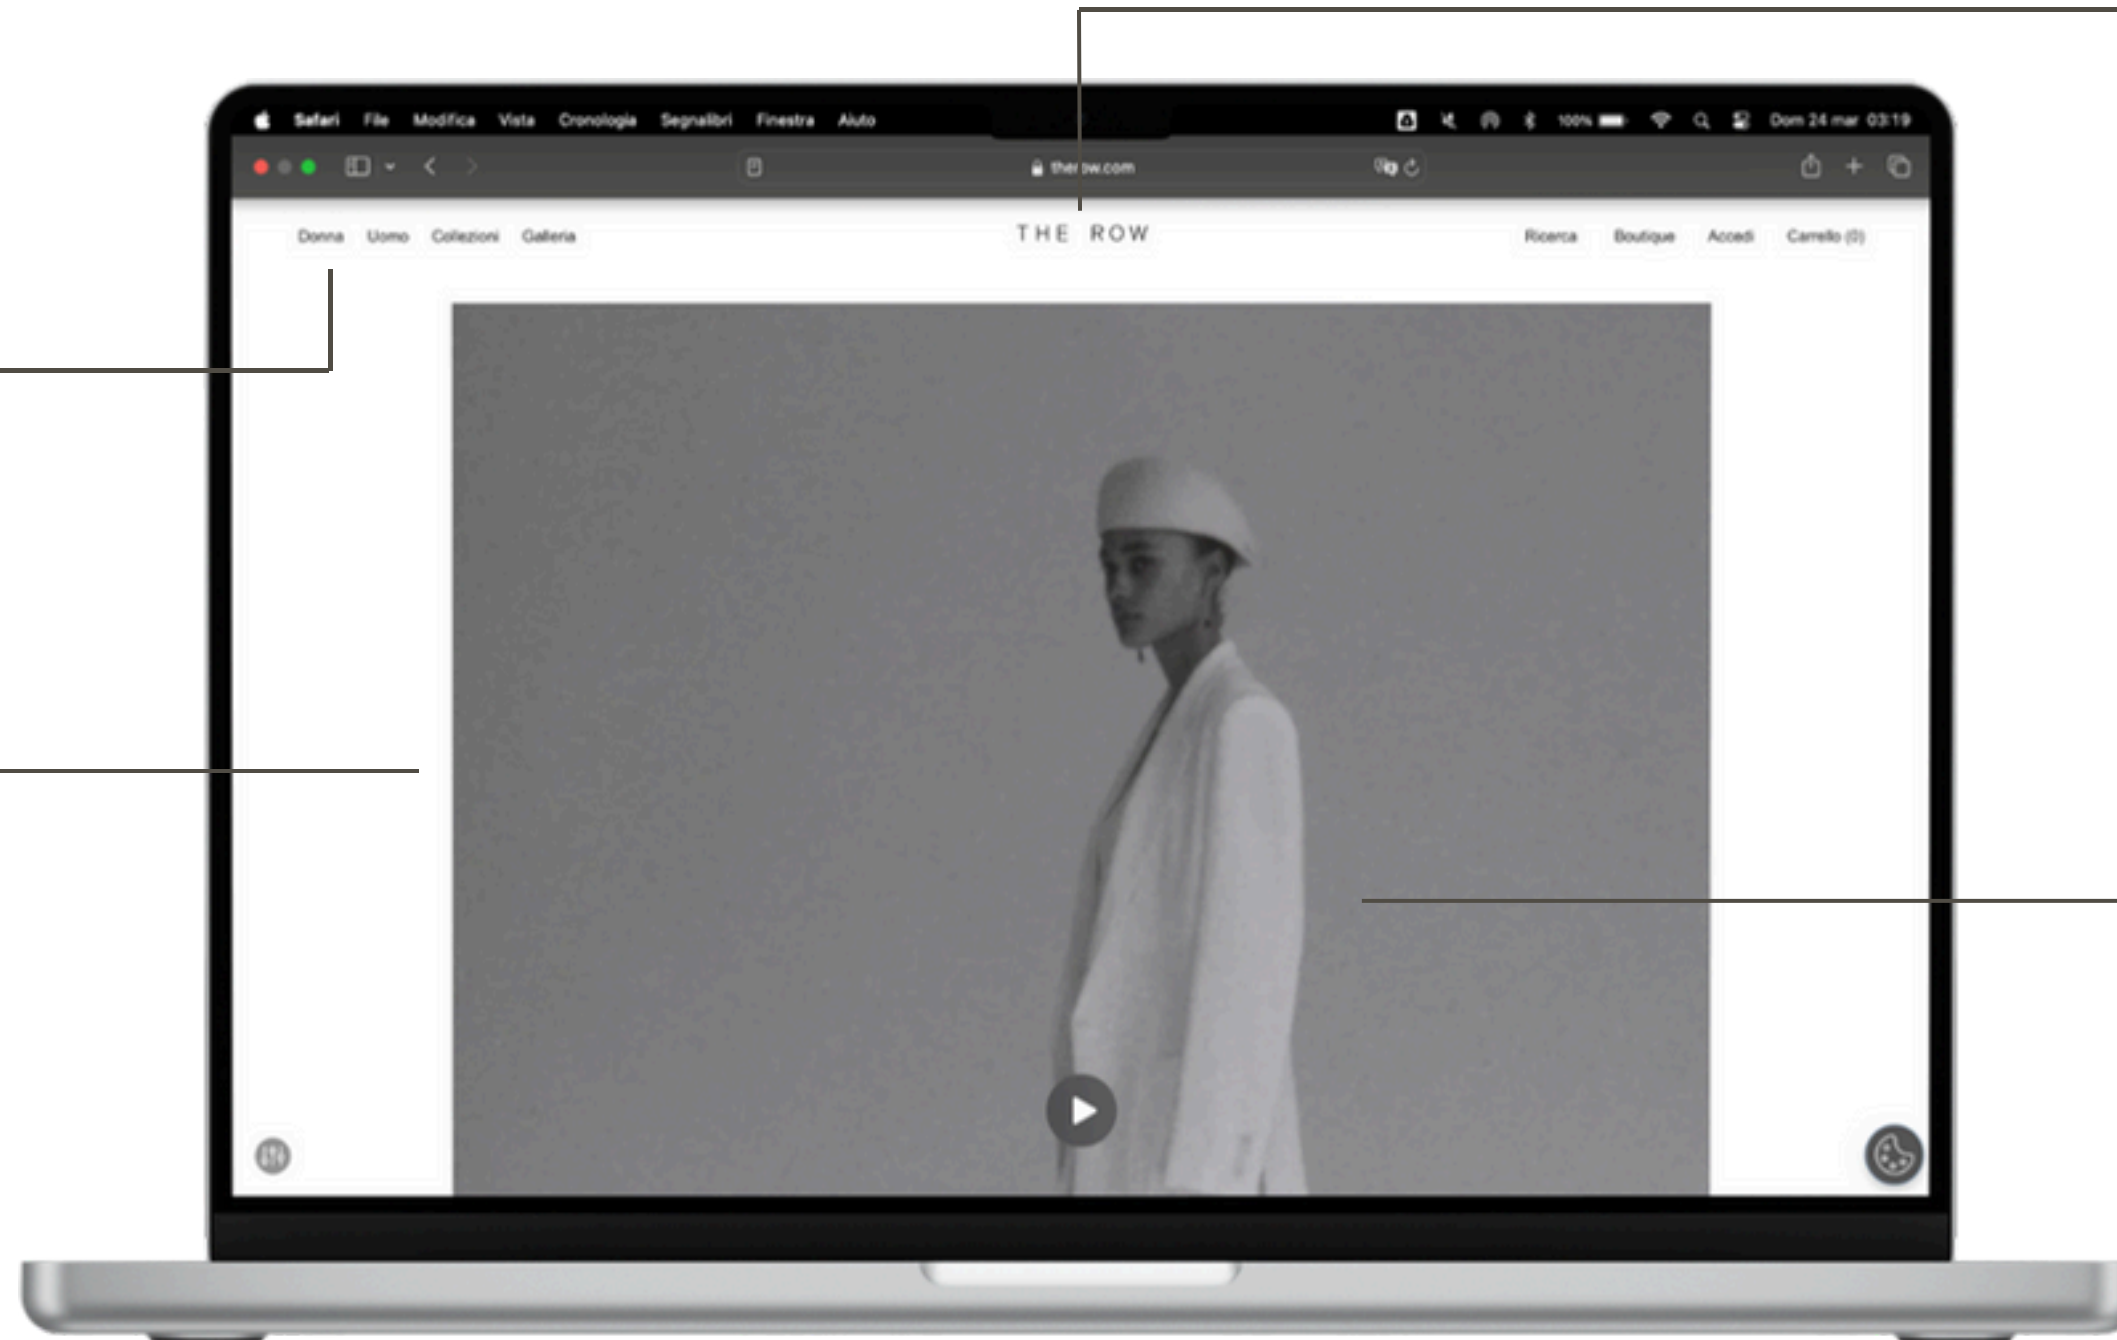

Monochromatic, cold and without highlighted elements, to give the idea of a brand that wants to remain almost anonymous and invisible

LOGO

The small logo to recall the idea of quiet luxury and that of a no-logo brand

VIDEO

Short abstract film to show the stylistic concept of the new collections

.https://www.therow.com/it-it

ANNEX 1.6 PROMOTION-MIX

DIRECT MARKETING	INDIRECT MARKETING	SPONSOR	PR	SALES PROMOTIONS	TRADE SALES	ADV
E-commerce Website Tiktok Sales	Influencer video reactions		UCG Tiktok videos Influencers Social Contents	Social events		Google Advertisement
Runway shows Closed Events Customer Care	Paparazzi Photos Gossip Magazine		VIP Actors CSR	Pop up Stores Artist Collaboration		Street Advertising'
20%	45%		20%	10%		5%

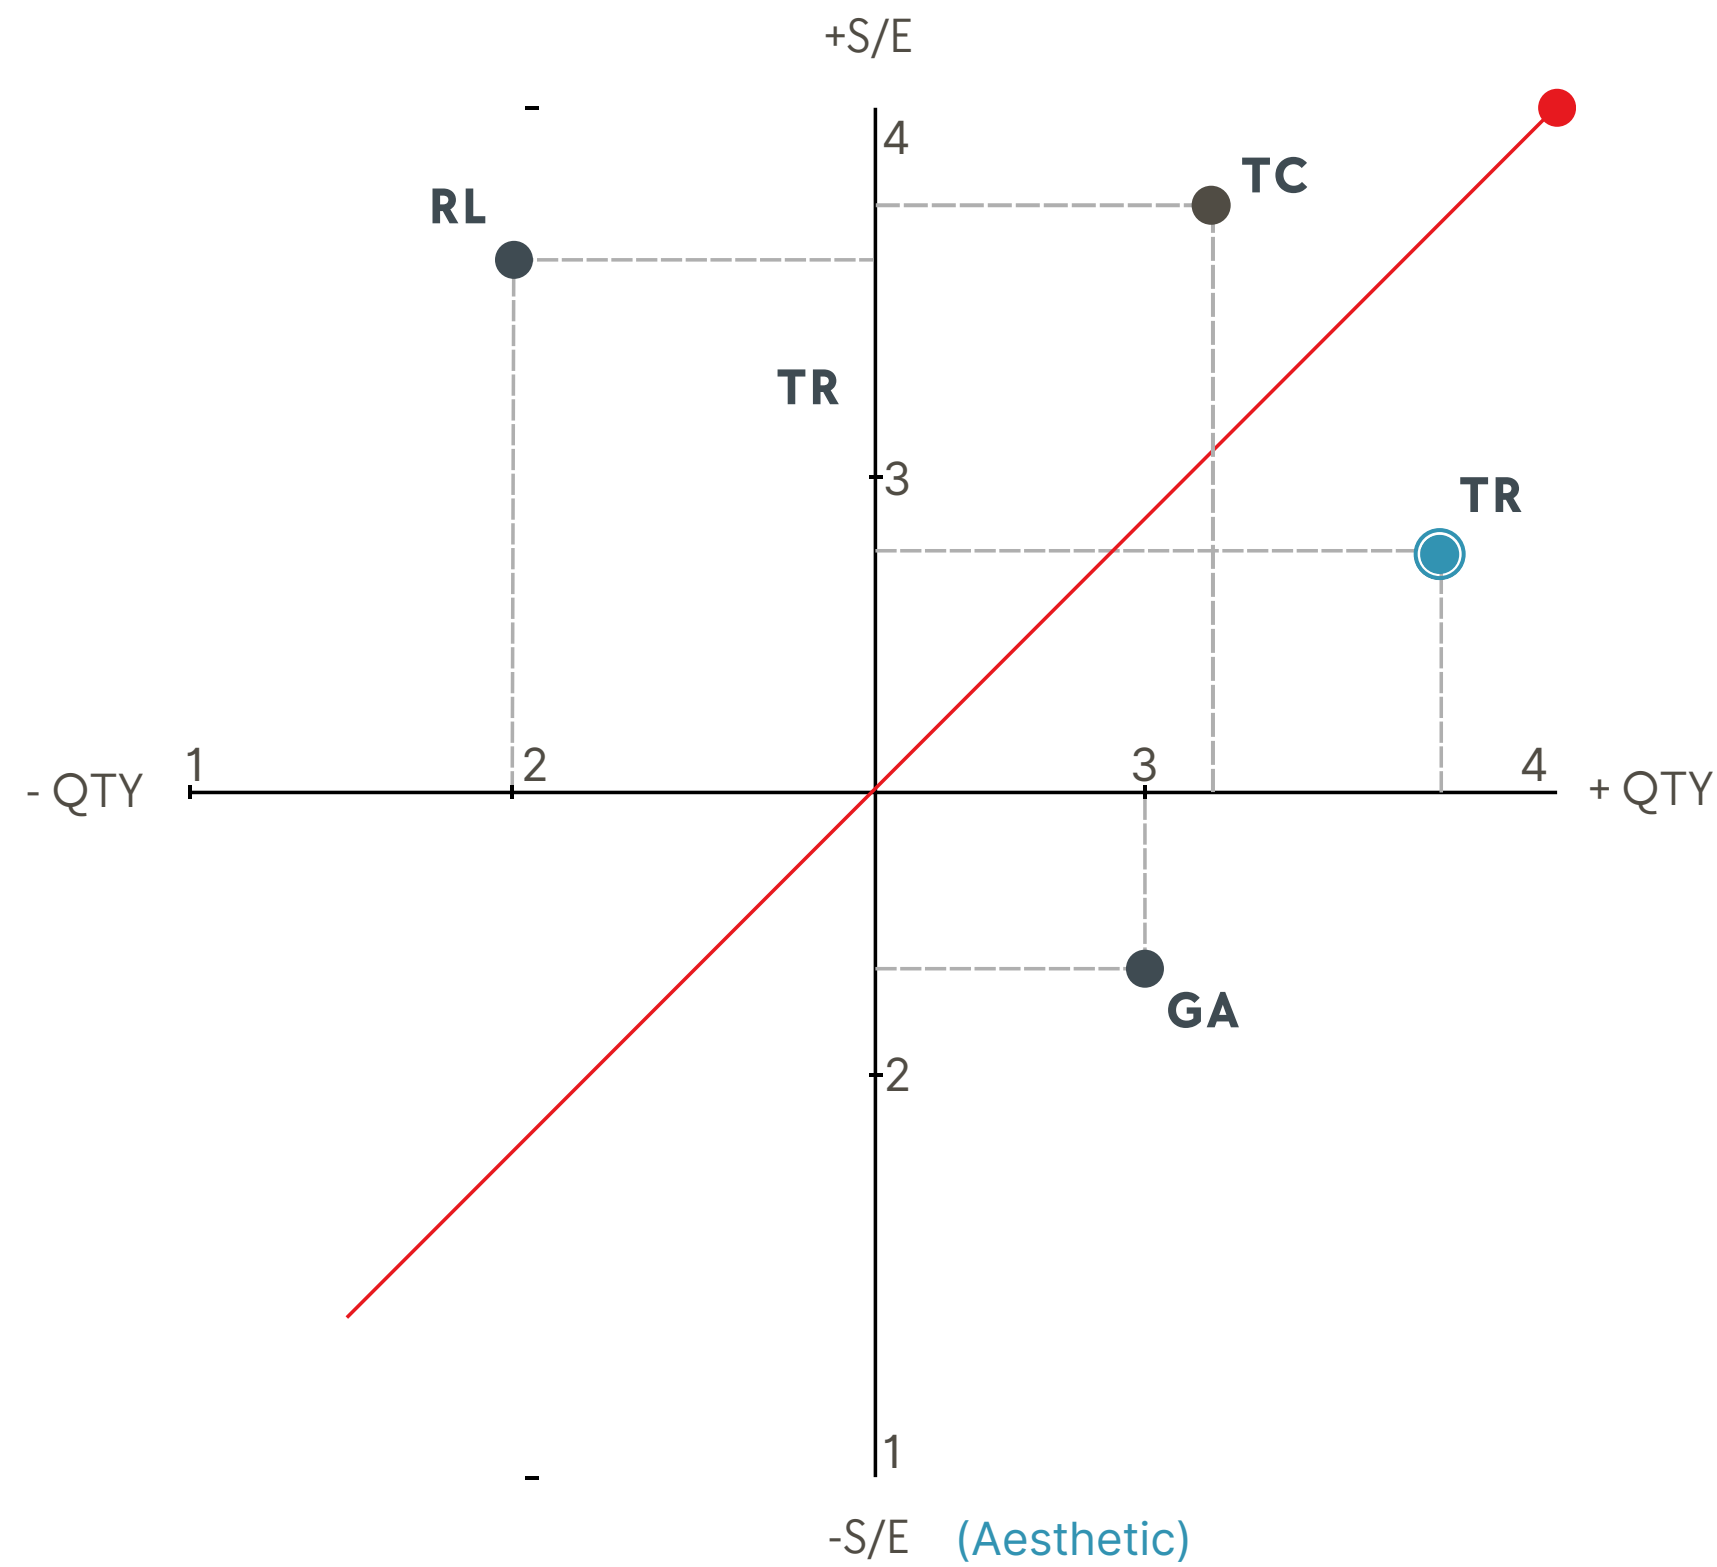

ANNEX 1.7 SWOT: STRENGTH & WEAKNESS

	STRENGTH	WEAKNESS
RSP1	Minimal, elegant and recognizable style	Limited marketing
RSP2	Celebrity brand awareness	Constrained product range
RSP3	- High quality materials and craftsmanship - Exclusive clientele - New generation luxury brand	- No entry level products - Addiction to the Olsen twins
O	S - O	W - O
T	S - T	W - T

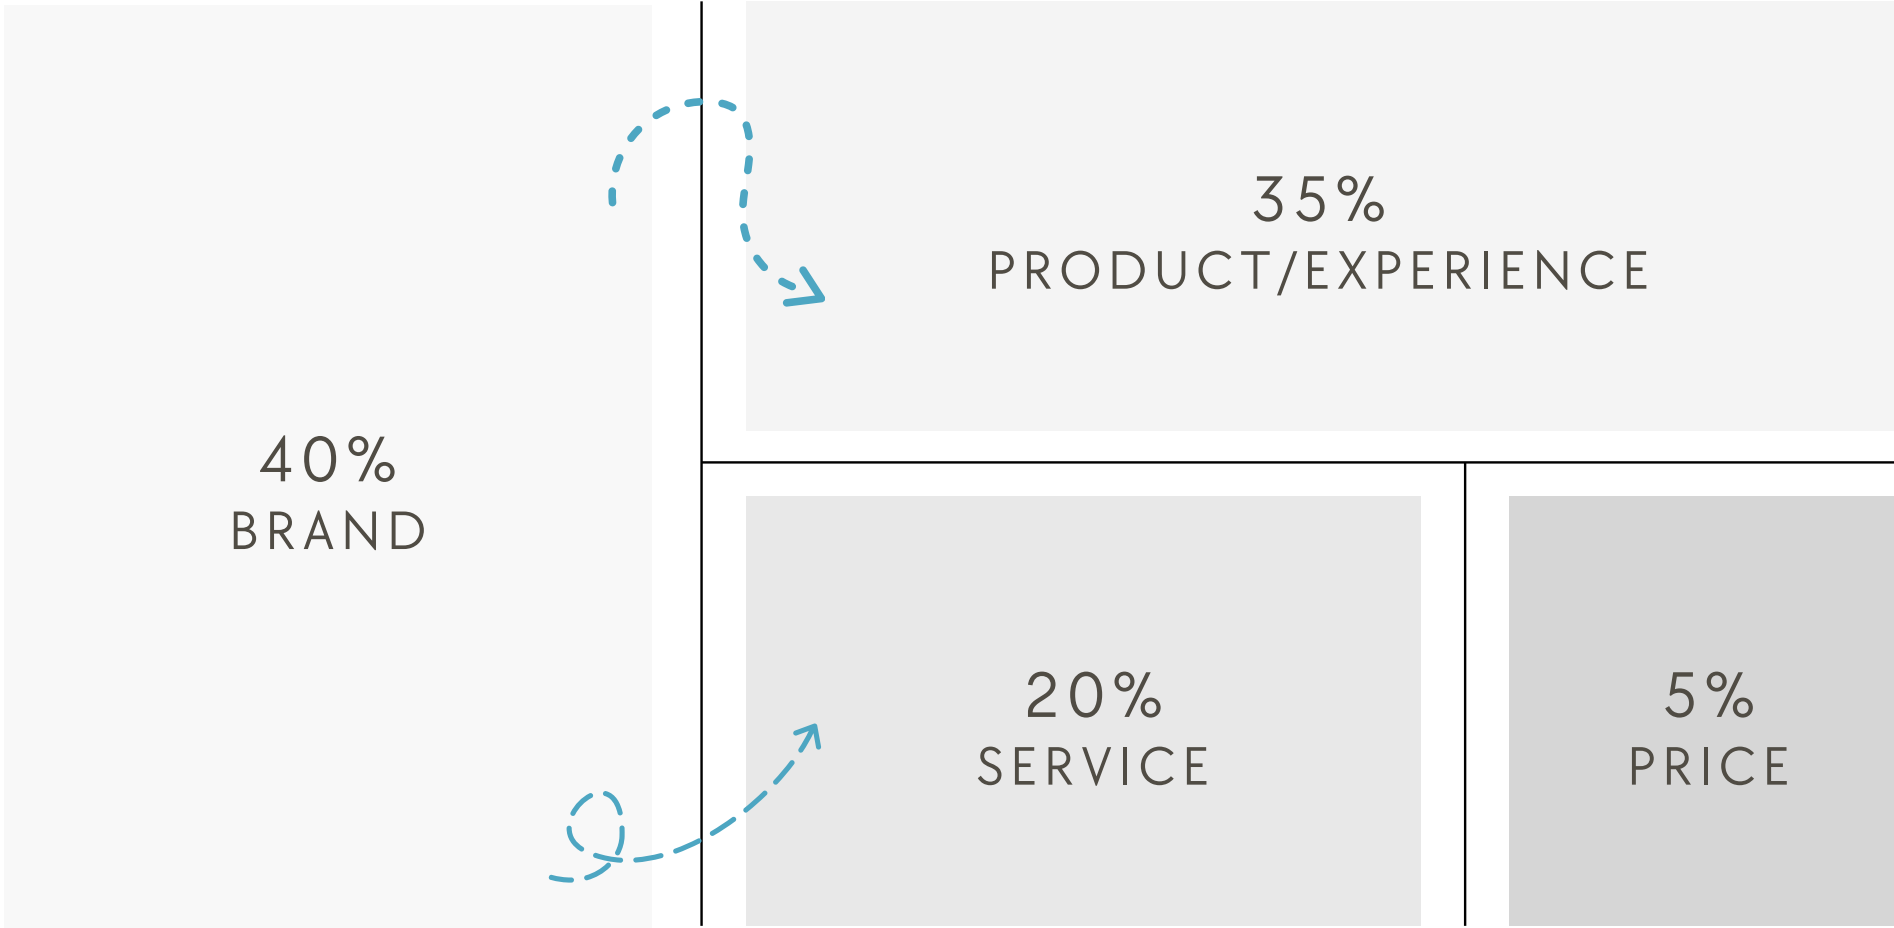

ANNEX 1.8 POSITIONING

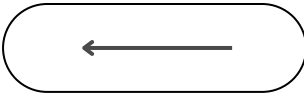

- TR: The Row
- RL: Ralph's Coffee
Ralph Lauren
- GA: Armani/Ristorante
Giorgio Armani
- TC: Blue Box Café
Tiffany & Co

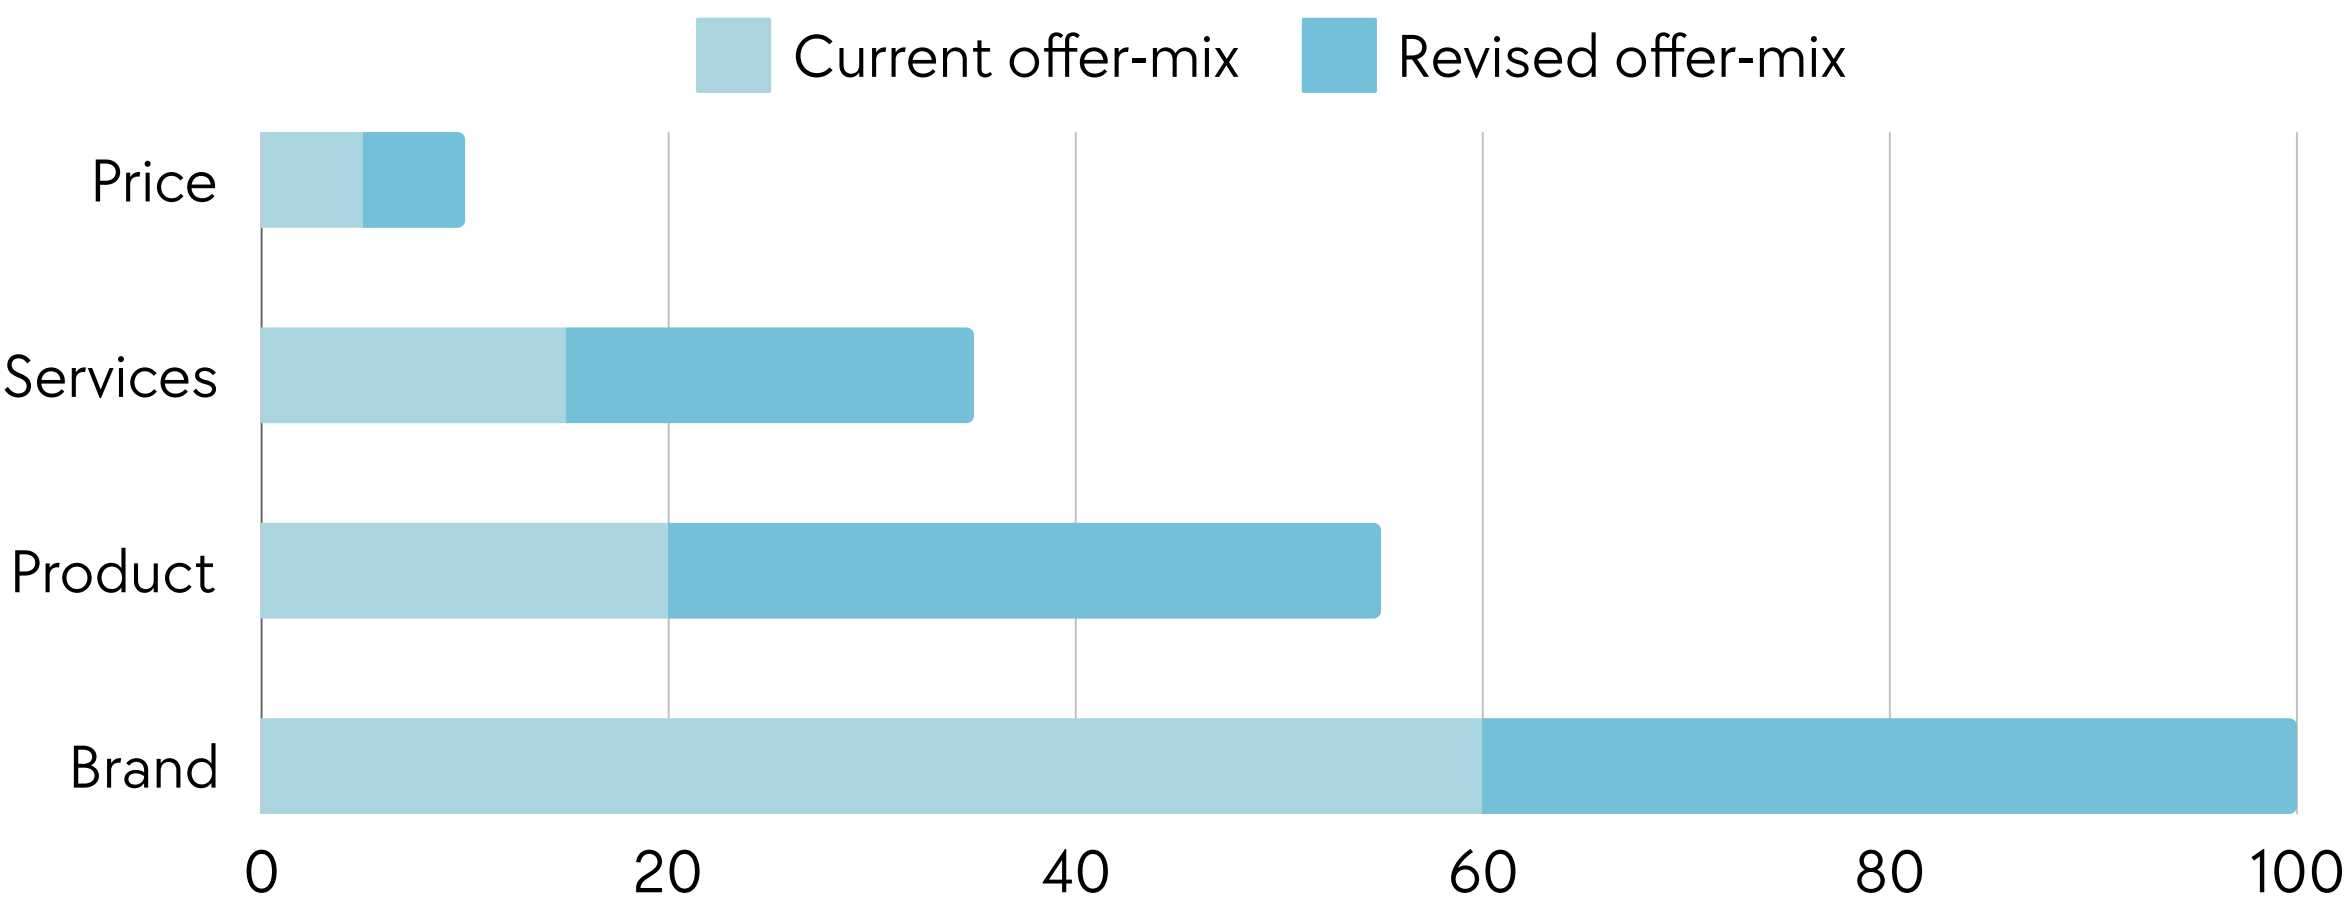

ANNEX 2.3 REVISING OFFER-MIX

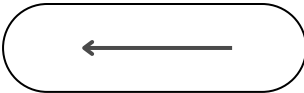

The brand will shift it’s core focus on showcasing the brand image that they portray to product experience and the quality of service and followed by the pricing.

ANNEX 2.3.1 OFFER-MIX COMPARISON

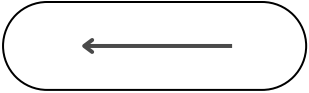

This a comparison matrix of the offer- mix between the current brand division and the revised offer that is being proposed to launch a new service line.

ANNEX 2.4 OPTIMISING MARKETING PROMOTION NEXT YEAR

DIRECT MARKETING	INDIRECT MARKETING	SPONSOR	PR	SALES PROMOTIONS	TRADE SALES	ADV
E-commerce Website Tiktok Sales	Influencer video reactions	Sports Tournaments	UCG Tiktok videos Influencers Social Contents	Social events
Runway shows Closed Events Customer Care	Paparazzi Photos Gossip Magazine	Charity events Performances	VIP Actors CSR	Pop up Stores Artist Collaboration
40%	5%	30%	15%	10%

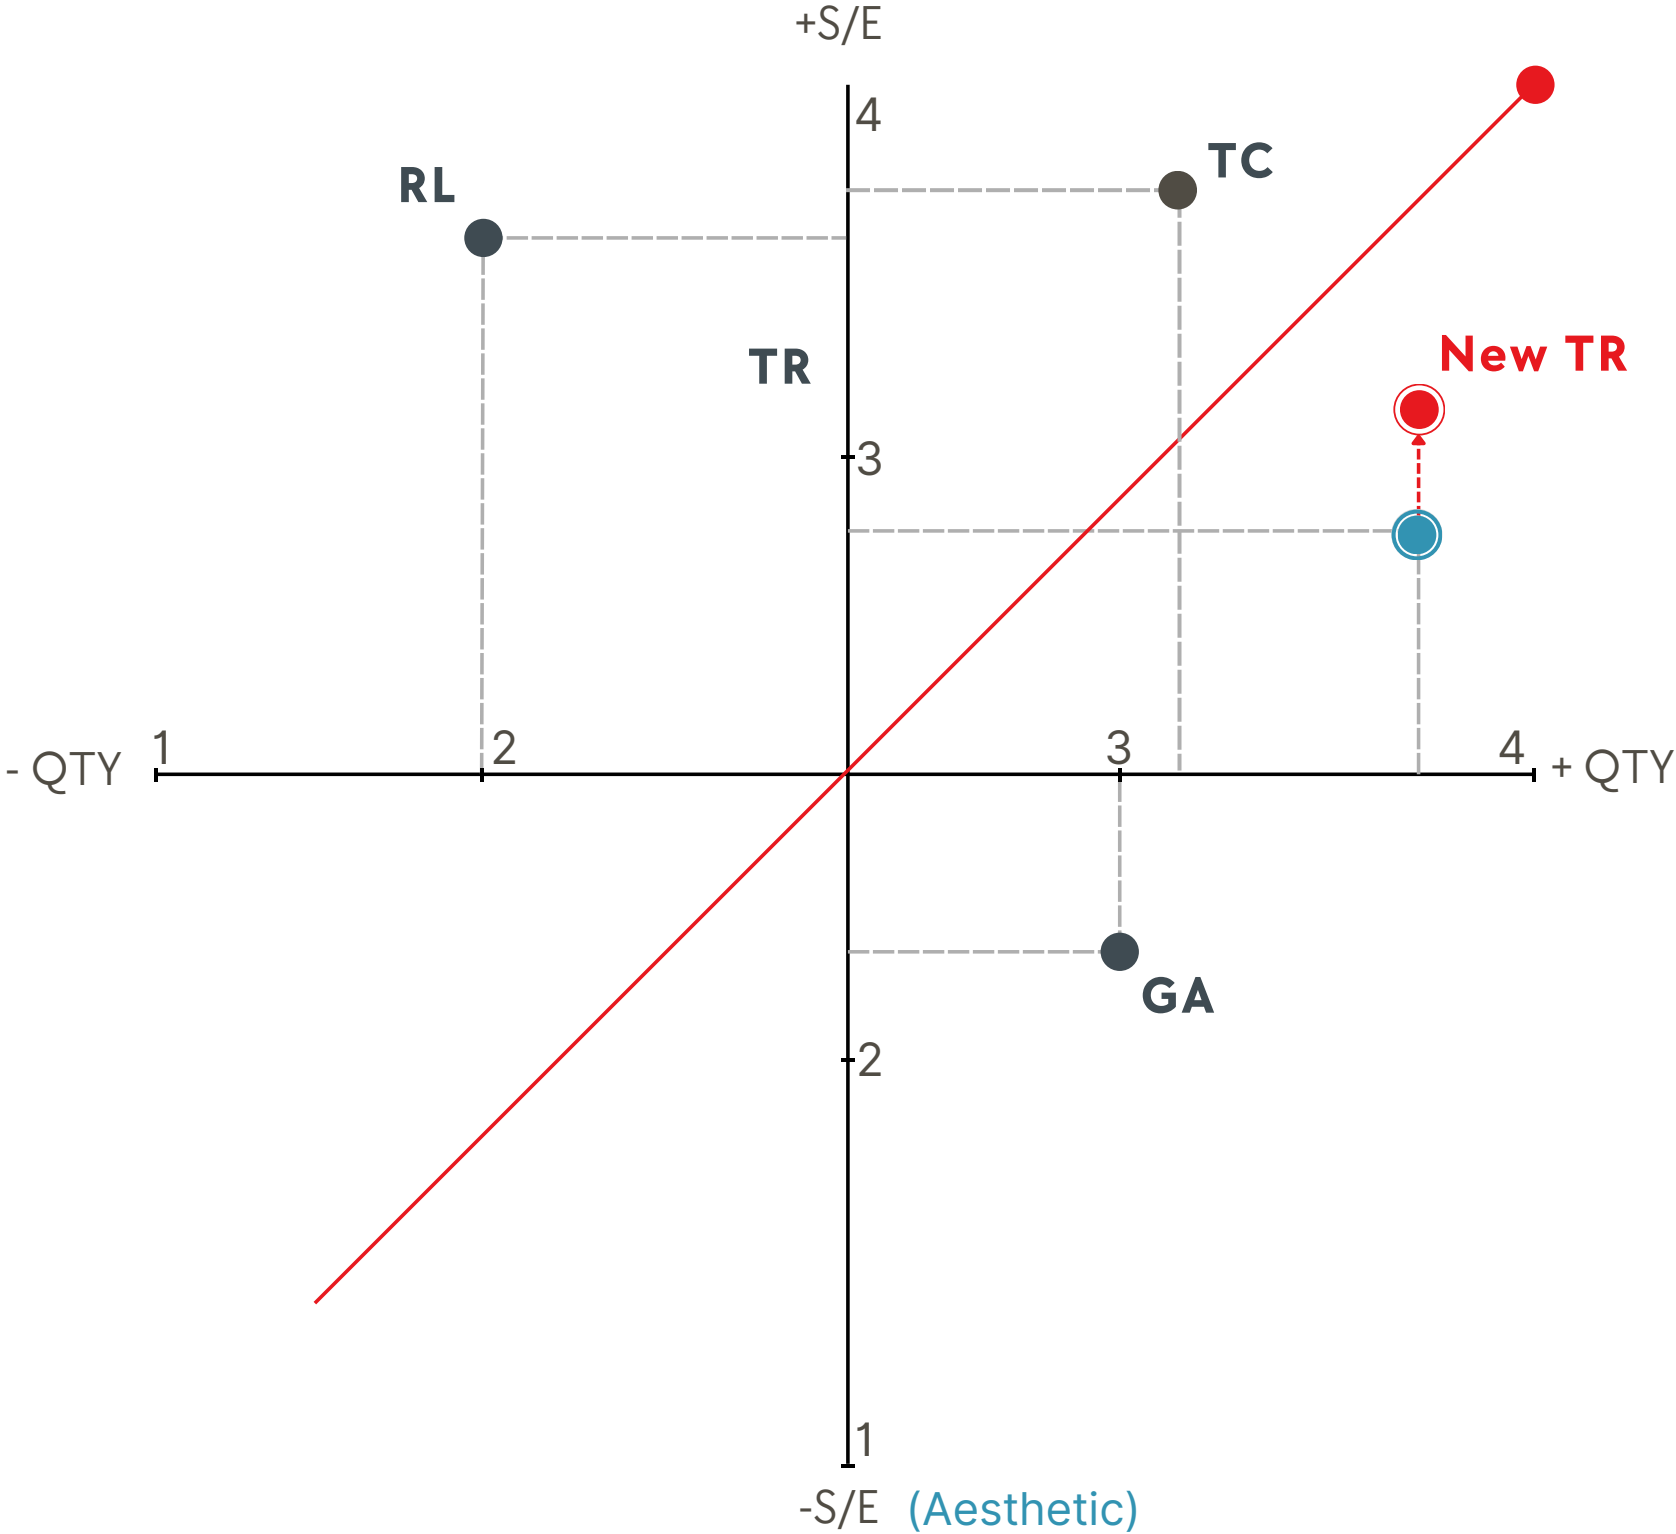

ANNEX 2.5 SWOT: OPPORTUNITIES & THREATS

	STRENGTH	WEAKNESS
OPPORTUNITIES	• Being the new generation luxury brand can put The Row in a leader position in the future • Exclusive clients could raise the perception of luxury brand	• With a limited product range the quality can be put in first place • The strong connection with the celebrities give credibility to the brand name The Row
THREATS	• Minimal design in future could be consider boring and old style • No direct control of VIPs and celebrities actions while wearing The Row in public	• The brand’s establishment has no heritage value, this affects image. • No entry level products, this prevents new people to buy the brand

ANNEX 2.6 RE - POSITIONING

TR: The Row
The Tea Room

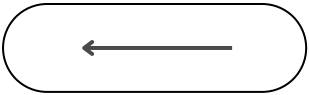

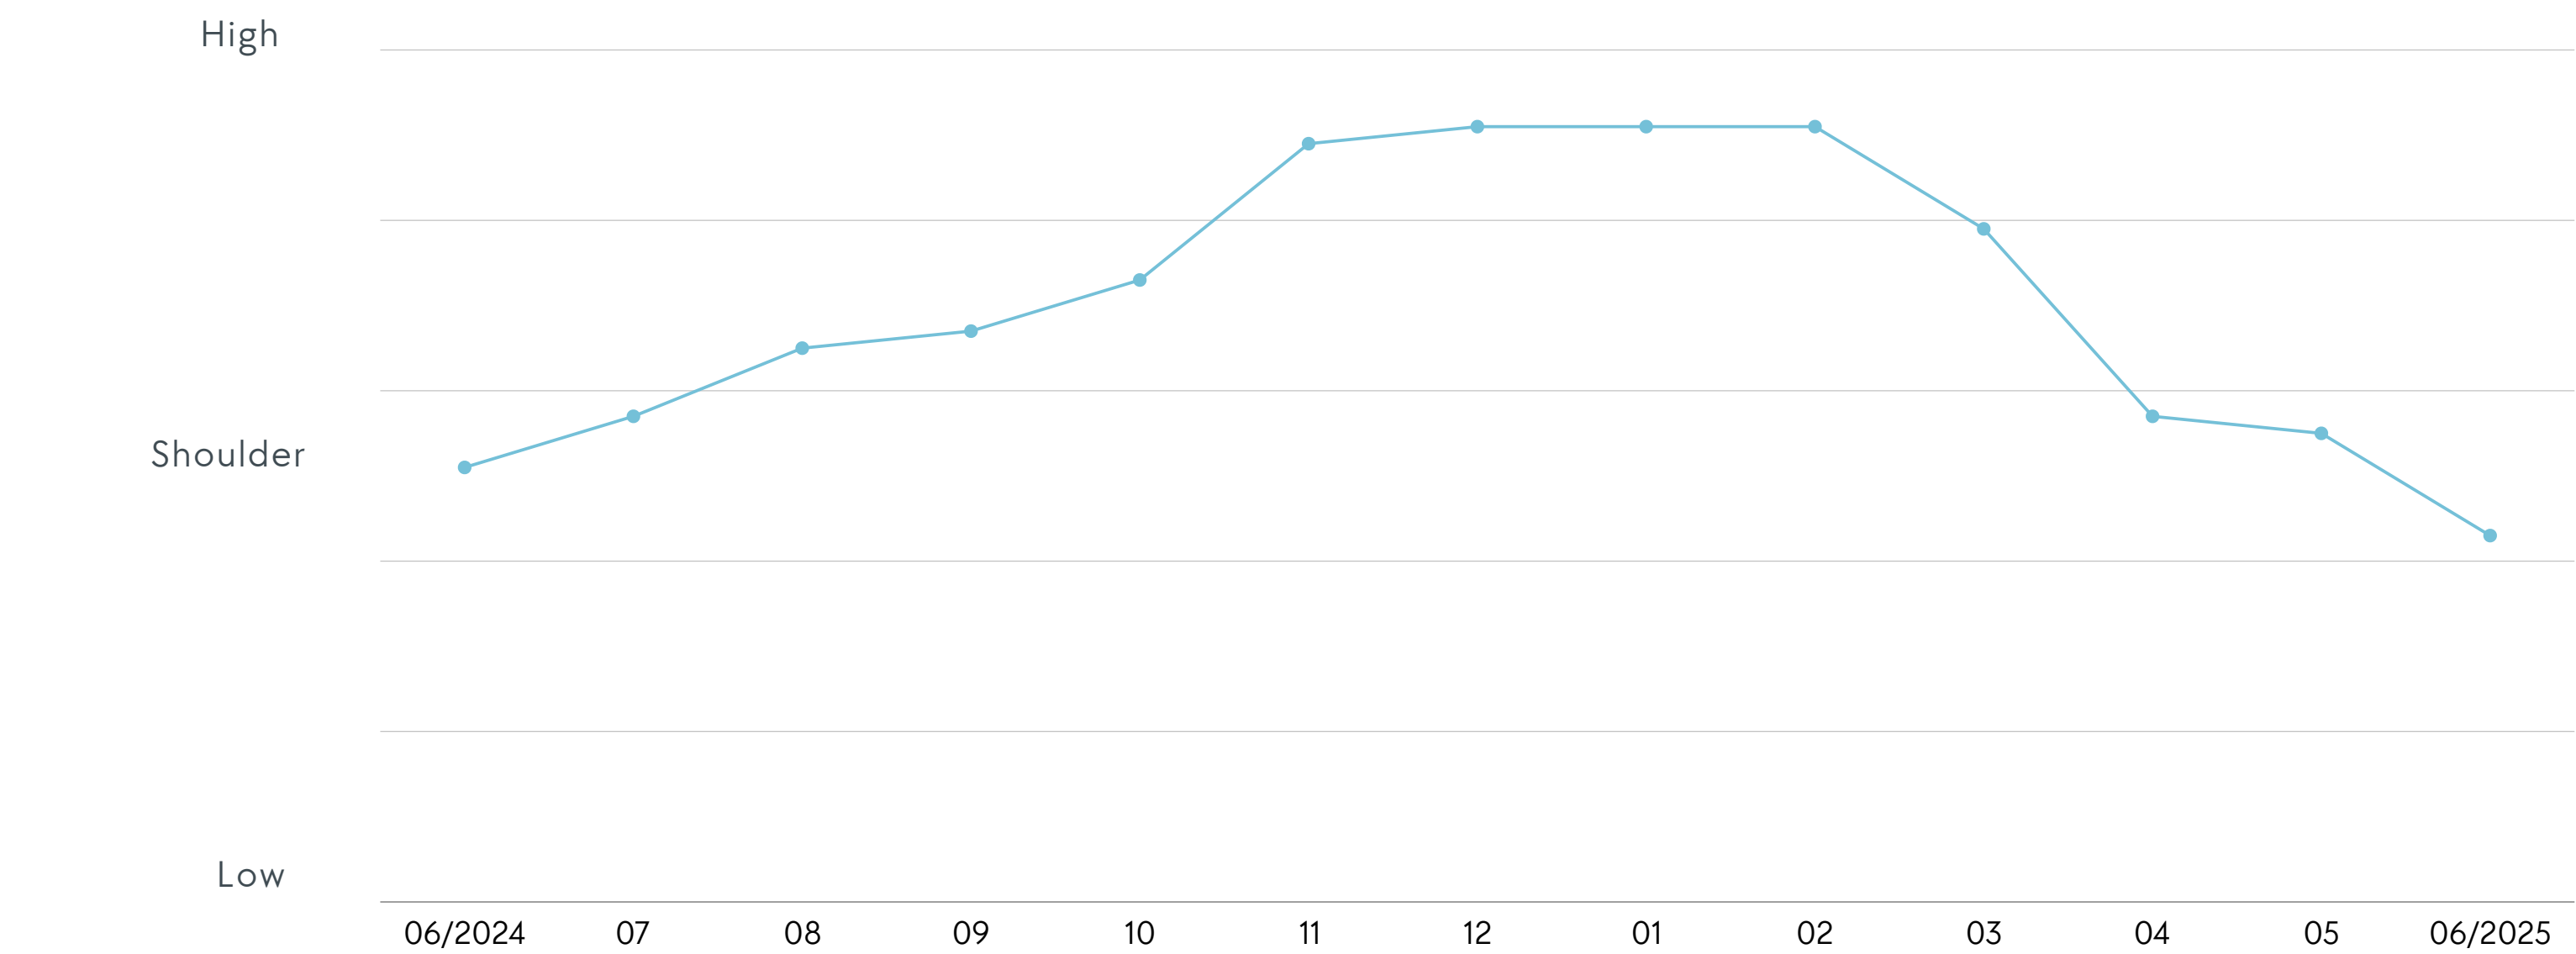

RL: Ralph’s Coffee
Ralph Lauren

GA: Armani/Ristorante
Giorgio Armani

TC: Blue Box Café
Tiffany & Co

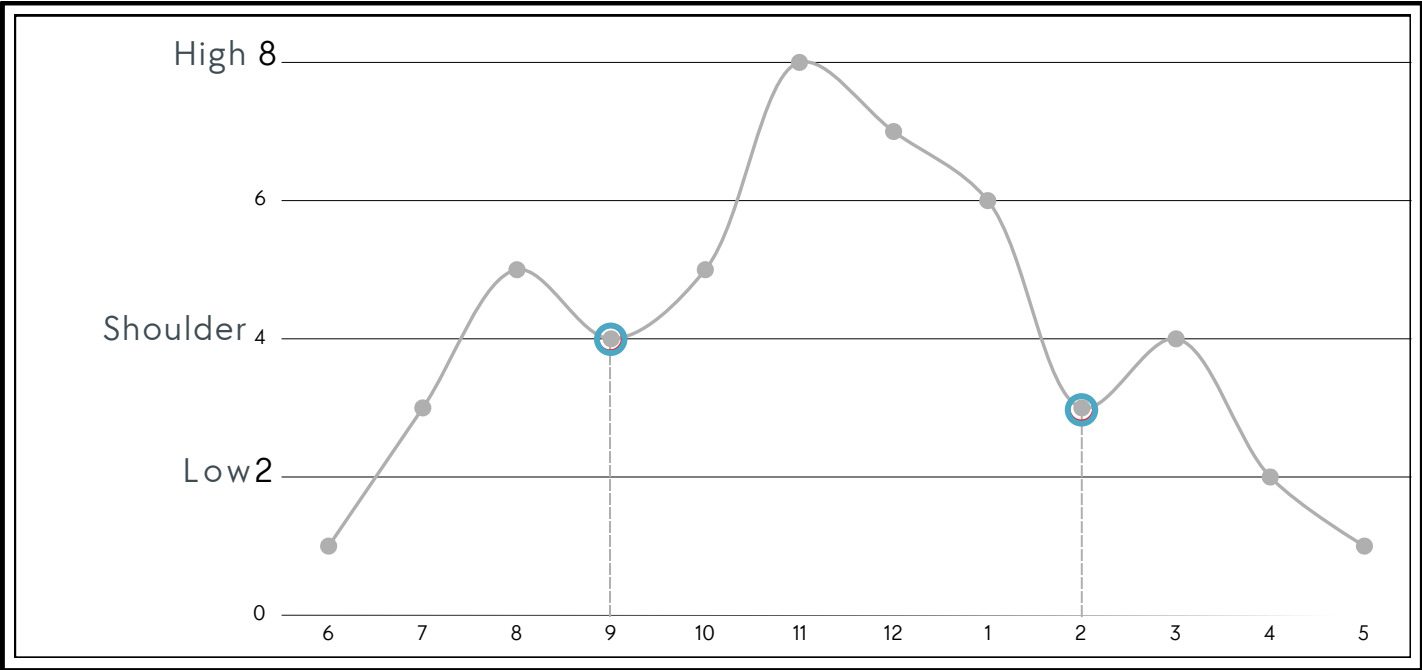

ANNEX 2.7.1 YEARLY SALE FORECAST

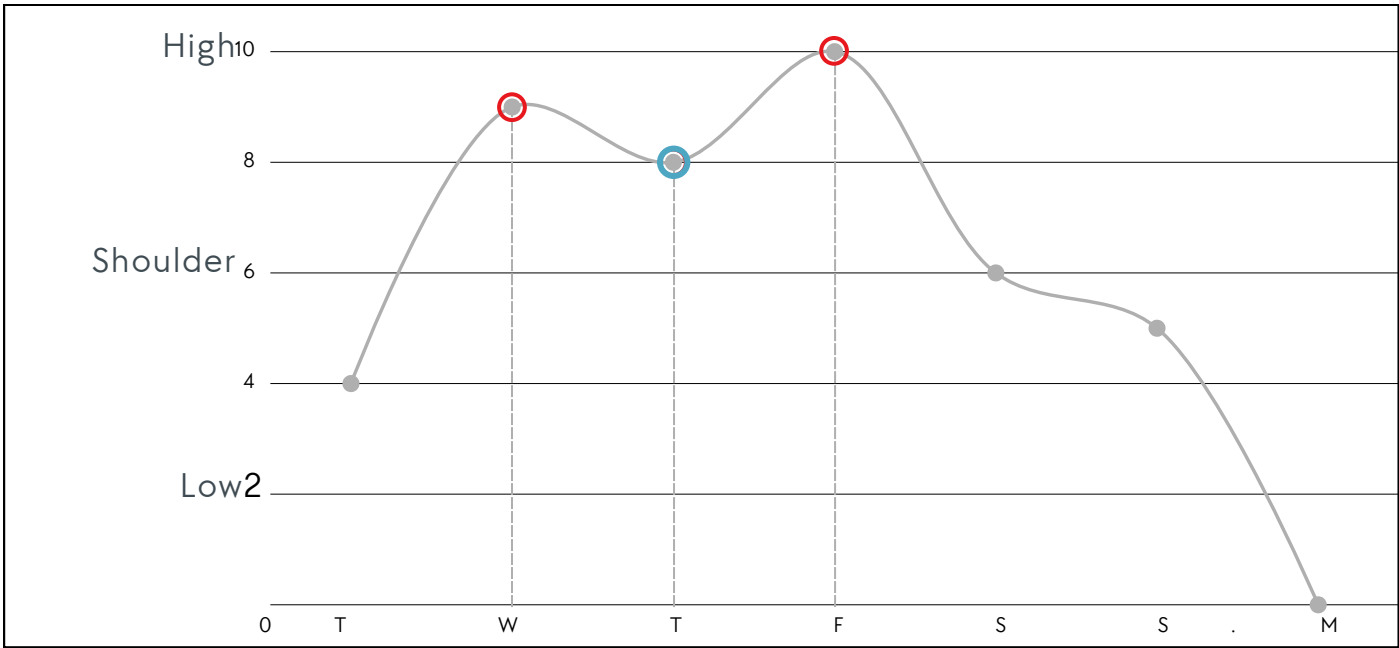

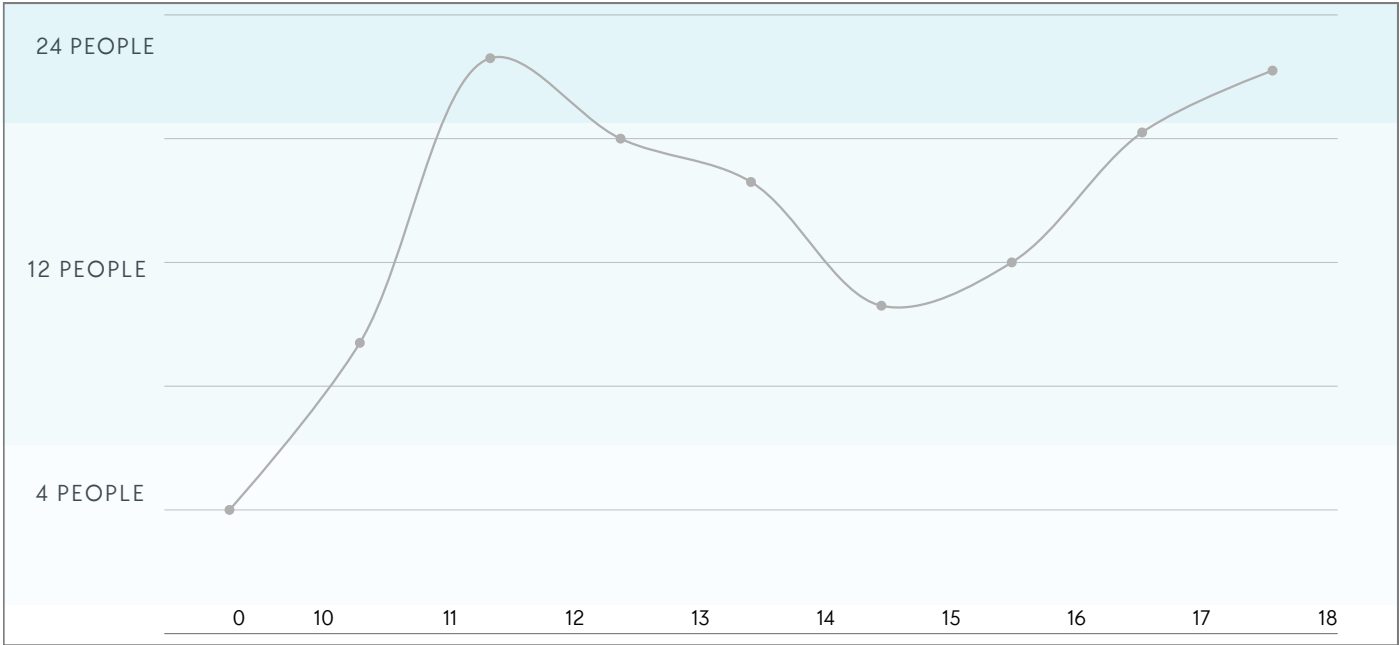

ANNEX 2.7.2 FACTS & ASSUMPTIONS

FROM 6/24 TO 5/25 IN NYC

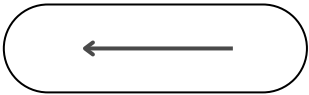

HOURS OF A WEDNESDAY IN SEPTEMBER

DAYS OF A WEEK IN SEPTEMBER

Total number of people per day:
3 times there are 24 people in the store = 72
5 times there are 12 people in the store = 62
1 time we have 4 people in the store = 4
So in total in 9h there are 136 people in the store

ANNEX 3.2 TO ADJUST THE OFFER

IMPROVING BRAND

+10%

- Create a logo and design a new iconic element to propose with the logo
- Improving the sustainability practice
- Create high end and artistic collaboration
Differentiate product categories

IMPROVING EXPERIENCE

+15%

- Provide a new service inside the shops (Tea Room) Private event for loyal costumers
- Possibility to personalize products
- More physical shops around the world

IMPROVING PRICE

+5%

- Allow payment with international credit cards
Create products with an entry level price

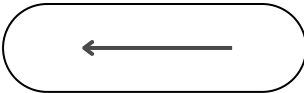

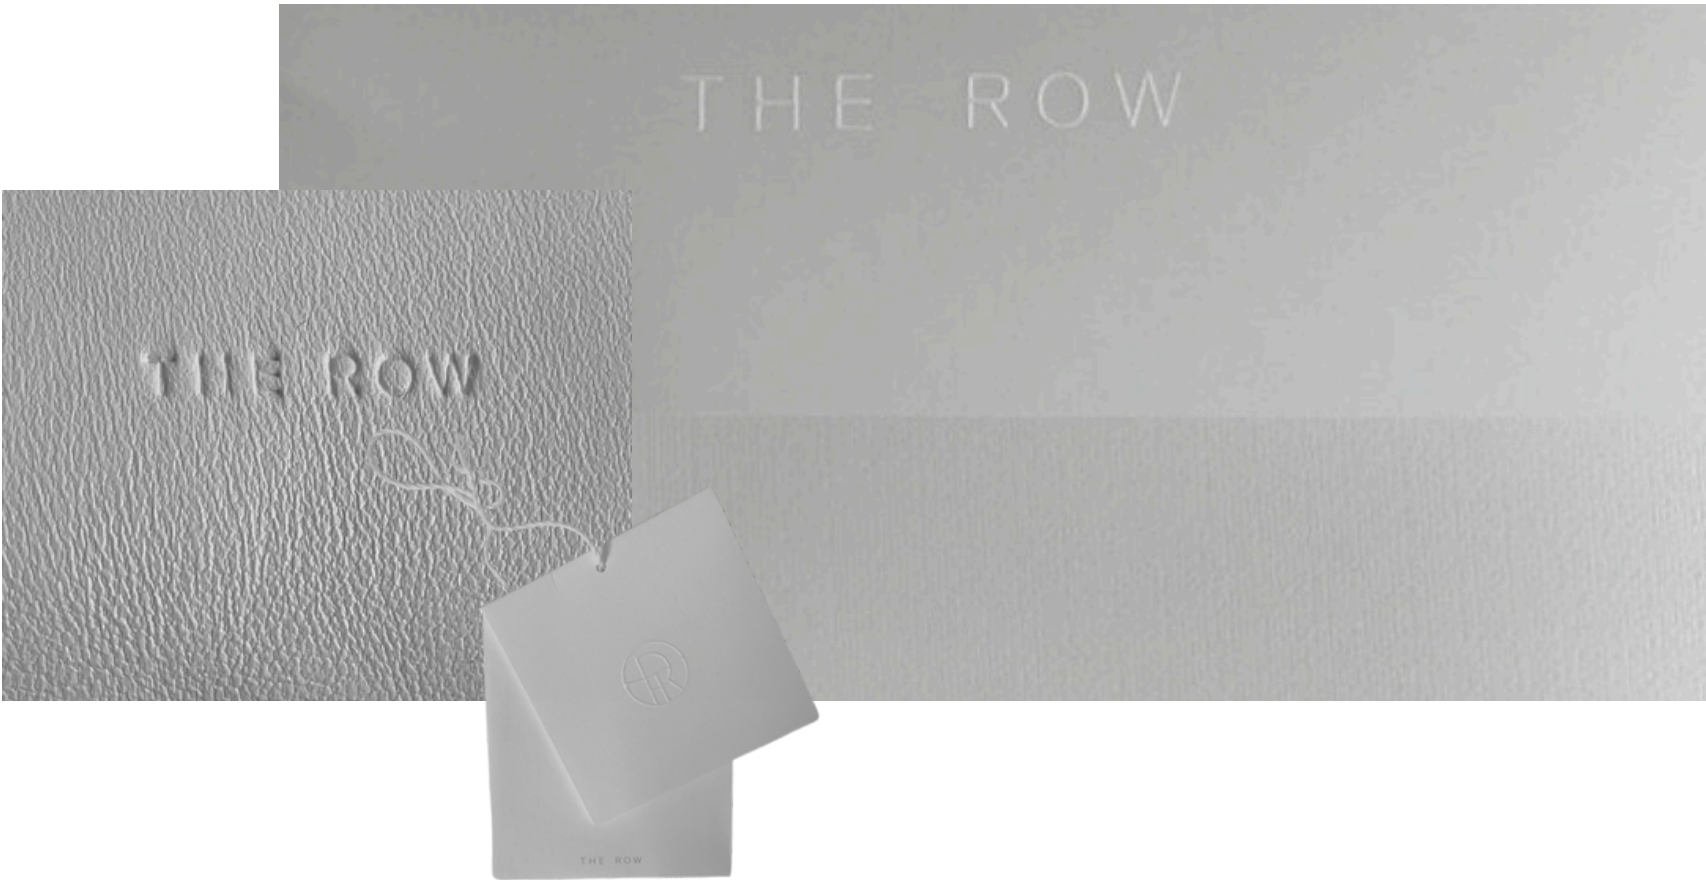

IMPROVING SERVICE

+5%

- Create a database with the names and the taste of the costumer
- Consenting the direct shipping of the product
Offer champagne or little finger food to the buyers

ANNEX 3.3 INVITATION - THE TEA ROOM

THE ROW

INVITATION

Madame Anna Smith

THE NEW VENTURE

THE TEA ROOM
THE ROW - SERVICE

OPENING NIGHT

JUNE 21, 2025
6PM ONWARDS

WWW.THEROW.COM

METROPOLITAN PAVILION • 123 WEST 18TH STREET, 4TH FLOOR • NEW YORK, NY • 10011